

Annual Teas Planned By Chairmen

The chairmen, who represent the various Circles of First Lutheran Church, met last evening in the home of Mrs. Wesley Megow of 1412 Fern Ave. to discuss and formulate plans for the Annual Mothers-Daughters Tea.

The tea will be held May 19 between 3 and 4 o'clock for the pre-school children and mothers and on May 20, from 3 to 5 o'clock for all daughters and their mothers of school age.

The purpose of this tea is not only for Christian fellowship, but it makes it possible for the women of First Lutheran to continue their scholarship in educating their "adopted boy," Chippal George, who lives in India and is being educated in one of the mission schools. A collection will be taken at the end of each program to further this cause. All member mothers and daughters of school age are invited.

The committees women assisting in this program are: general chairman, Mrs. Yessy Megow, food chairman, Mrs. Roy BEAUTIFULLY GOWNED . . . and holding a ceramic doll in matching attire is Mrs. Gladys Mothersell, royal matron, and Clyde Satterfield, royal patron, who were installed as leaders of Lomita Court 61, Order of Amaranth, in an impressive ceremony held April 12 in the Torrance Masonic Temple.

New Officers of Lomita Amaranth Installed At Impressive Ceremony

Leadership of Lomita Court 61, Order of Amaranth, was assumed Thursday evening, April 12, by Gladys Mothersell and Clyde Satterfield when they were installed royal matron and royal patron in an impressive, and beautiful ceremony held in the Torrance Masonic Temple.

Beautifully gowned in white formal of varied intricate designs, each carrying in place of the usual floral piece a ceramic doll complete with formal and corsage, the handwork of Royal Matron-elect Gladys Mothersell, the honored ladies installed into the several offices were Audrey Bacon, associate matron; Emma Evans, secretary; Lucilla Johnson, conductress; Dorothy Davis, associate conductress; Edna Mullen, Mar. in East; Vivian Cook, Mar. in West; Marjorie Russell, standard bearer; Garnett Satterfield, musician; Grace Herd, truce; Ethel Funk, faith; Gertrude Kastrup, wisdom; Kathleen Ritko, charity; Vera Jones, historian, and Margaret Whipple, warder.

Six knights installed included Fred Bacon, associate patron; Fred Cook, treasurer; Eugene Ewyer, P.R.F., trustee; Frank Whipple, proctor, and Jess Kastrup, sentinel.

Several hundred members of the order and their friends witnessed the installation conducted by Sir Knight Thagard Buchholz, 1956 royal patron. After the escort presentation of several members of the grand lecturer, and Estella Des Jardins, grand representative to the state of Oklahoma, were present and took active part in the colorful ceremony.

Grand Court of California, included Don Brown, grand royal patron; Nina E. Cheney, grand associate conductress; May McCormick, P.G.R.M.; Pearl Mahaffie, assistant grand lecturer assigned to Lomita Court, and Ruby Wade, district deputy grand royal matron. Members of Lomita Court holding grand offices, Mattie Meyer, assistant

Following the formalities an informal reception was enjoyed in the banquet room where refreshments were served by honored lady, Mattie Meyer, and her committee.
