The home of the bride's grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gust Hadjes in Artesia on Sunday, April 24, was the setting when Miss Joanne Underdown became the bride of Duane Carter in a lovely home ceremony.

The bride wore a white tulle ballerina length wedding gown. A tiara held her illusion fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of baby pink roses and white orchids.

Bridal attendants were Misses Charlene Underdown and DeLores Alexander. Thomas Thompson served as best man.

Close friends and relatives were then entertained at a reception.

The couple will reside in Long Beach until the bridegroom is discharge from the U. S. Navy the latter part of May.

IN THE NOVELTY BOOTH... at Nativity School's carnival Wednesday afternoon will be an array of handmade articles for sale. Looking over the collection are (from left) Mmes. Pauline Carlin, Arden Landerville, Mary Andreoli and Bette Ludeen. Games of all kinds, as well as food, will be provided. ### Reflections

By J. HUGH SHERFEE, JR.

MOTHER'S DAY

Even the word "Mother" brings a quickened heartbeat. Our mothers occupy a place in our hearts no one else can ever fill. Lincoln said, "All that I am I owe to my mother."

To glorify her this Sunday, May 13th, is right and proper; she doesn't ask for a fence around her little world—just thoughtfulness. A note scribbled in pencil is a welcome gift; a telephone call across the miles is happiness in words; a dinner, with her in the place of honor, will make her smile with pride and joy; take her to the church of her choice; for a visit with friends—glorify her, make this Sunday truly Her Day.

This man's Mother is gone. He and his wife choose a mother whose children are gone; they glorify this lady in their mother's name. He said, "We are as happy as children." Those two people have found a secret of happiness.

F.S.—CONFIDENCE in us is honored as a sacred trust.
