

OD & GUN Chatter

By DONNA BARKDULL

...ant anglers all set for the yellowtail to really cut at the Coronado now summer weather is with pretty lousy up 'til with days going by with even one yellow checked the dock. Most unusual warming up to 100 lbs. and as soon as it cleans from the Santa Ana, they found to be poor. Looking for sports of action by the week. Harrauda and bonita excited again along with the winter game fish.

Harvel Gutsenfelder, Al and the Coast had a ball at Crowley Lake last week, hauling aboard their limits of rainbows, cutthroats and spotted tahoes. Had to be content with still fishing as nothing was doing at the time on the trolling side. That's how sport fish on to the big ones, at least that is the story I get. The largest in their catch was a 20 1/2-inch rainbow netted by Al, as usual. Returning from his trip at Crowley for trout, Al boarded the Sportfisher out of Joe Martin's Landing, horsing in two yellowtail taken on jigs from Catalina waters, weighing 28 lbs. 3 ozs. and 21 lbs. 1 oz., much to the dismay of several local yokels who would like to land just one over 20 lbs. Only three brought to gaff, that particular day being Friday, on the Sportfisher. So he was living up to his reputation. Getting the most and the biggest.

Last week, addicts venturing to the border city had to be content with lingcod. An occasional white sea bass, nine in all, were checked in for the plus the usual run of sea bass. Qualifying weight in annual San Diego Yellow Derby now at 22 pounds ounces. First of the three derbies scheduled for the first Sunday in June.

Finally, the briny deep around Catalina and San Clemente Islands alive with big mosse backs. Majority never hauled over the San Clemente yellows being cagey. Rolling all over the boat but not taking for hitting jigs. Nothing aggravating! Improved in weather conditions expected to straighten out their habits. Men with foul winds and heavy seas, Pacific Sportfisher reported 43 yellowtail checked in, 10 from Catalina and 24 from San Clemente. For last week was boat-er by Joe Demasters' aboard Fisherman II working San Clemente waters. Hitting 28 and 8 ounces. Good number on both islands running between 20 and 28 pounds. "Dogs" popped, but fast.

Saxon Golfers Top El Segundo In Final Match

Diek Kimonyi checked in with a 39 to pace Coach Bill Wood's North High golfers Monday as the Saxon scores were: Dave Scott, 43; Gary Little and Bill Wilson, 44; Nick Urban, 45, and Steve Crowell, 46. The Saxons had a good team aggregate of 261.

Friday the locals saw any chance of a league pennant go by the boards when they were beaten, 85-19, by Morningside. The Monarchs belted the Saxons on the rough Inglewood Country Club course. Wood said Tuesday that the Saxons will continue practicing until the CIF matches, which begin soon.
