Patricia A. Doran and Airman Quigley Recite Nuptial Vows

Planning a home in Lake Charles, La., are Airman 2 c and Mrs. Larry Philip Quigley, who were married April 26, at a 9 a.m. nuptial mass in St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church of Lomita.

The couple recently returned from a honeymoon at Balboa Island. The bridegroom has left for his assignment at Lake Charles and his bride will join him there shortly.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. John Hegarty. A program of bridal music was played at the organ by Mrs. Mary Butterfield. The bride who is the former Patricia Ann Doran and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Doran, of 24655 Woodward Ave., Lomita, repeated nuptial vows in a gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over nylon net and satin. Her fingertip veil was held by a Juliet cap and she carried white orchids. She was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Betty Doran attended the bride as matron of honor. She wore a ballerina length gown of light blue nylon net over taffeta and carried a pink nosegay.

The bridegroom who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peary Quigley, of 1543 W. 219th St., was attended by Jack Doran, brother of bride, who served as best man. Don Daily seated the wedding guests.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Narbonne High School.

Nuptial Vows Exchanged by Carol Owens-Ronald Johnson, May 19

Ronald E. Johnson took as his bride Carol Owens in a lovely ceremony of May 19 which took place in the First Christian Church of Torrance.

Bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Johnson of 2621 Martha St. and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Owens of Gardena.

Double ring vows were read by the Rev. H. Milton Sippel before the altar decorated with urns of white stock and snapdragons and floor baskets of the same blooms marking the place of ceremony.

Coming to the altar on the arm of her father, the bride was attractively gowned in white Chantilly lace over tulle and white satin, styled with a scalloped neckline and long pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil fell from a lace tiara and she carried white shattered carnations and stephanotis.

Mrs. Dolores Johnson as matron of honor preceded her to the altar. She was gowned in pale blue lace over tulle, featuring a scalloped neckline. Bridesmaid was Mrs. Janice Copeland in a pastel pink gown fashioned with a short tulle jacket. Both bridal attendants carried pink roses and carnations.

Attending the bridegroom as best man was his brother, Donald Johnson, and officiating the ceremony were Melvin Copeland, Robert Fesse and Robert Johnson.

A program or organ music was played by Mrs. Ellen

Hanes which included "Oh, Promise Me" and "Because."

A pink and white reception in the church hall followed the service. Mrs. Lucille Johnson presided over the guest register.

Upon their return from a honeymoon in Las Vegas, the newlyweds will be at home at 1406 1/2 W. 215th St.

Both are graduates of Torrance High School, he of the class of '54 and she the following year. The new Mrs. Johnson is attending a Long Beach business college and he is a student at El Camino College.
