Surprise Guests At Gardena

An added attraction for the Memorial Day race at Gardena Stadium will be a knight, the Golden Lancer, and his golden-haired princess.

The Golden Lancer, attired from helmet to mailed toes in bright gold armor, will appear with his lady-in-waiting in the new Dodge Golden Lancer car.

Sponsored by Tom Rody Gardena Dodge dealership, the Golden Lancer and his comely princess, also dressed in gold, will lend a medieval air to the Memorial Day race as they sign autographs and entertain the patrons.

Roady, president of Tom Rody Motors, identified the lady-in-waiting as Susan Jarrell, Hollywood movie starlet, but said the knight is known only as the Golden Lancer. Roady's only clue to the erstwhile knight's identity is that he has been a big favorite of Los Angeles' younger set for the past several years on television.

The convertible Dodge Lancer car has been selected to act as the pace car for the main event on Memorial Day.

Reflections

By J. HUGH SHERREY, JR.
 MEMORIAL DAY

For us, the blast of shells is stilled. The tramp of feet, roll of drum, crack of rifle, stench of acrid smoke, sharp commands and rumble of cannon are memories. That world ablaze is blacked pages of history; we will turn those pages with reverence. On those pages is written the pains of birth, and death, the valor or patriotism; we shall stand uncovered while a prayer, is sent to heaven, reiterating over and over again. "We have not forgotten."

Those men who gave us a Nation left a torch for us to hold aloft. They gave us the rules of freedom, they stood up to the spectre of death, mocked it, laid their lives on the altar of honor that our children might live in peace.

The legacy those men left to us in burnished bright. It reflects the light of a hundred and fifty million torches held in our hands this May 30th, their Memorial day.
 P.S.: Each Service we conduct is a tribute.
