Y. F. Hammit, of Normandie Recreation Center, was called out of town quite suddenly last week. His father was very ill, but he became much better so Hammit returned Tuesday. Glad to hear this as the children missed him for those few days he was gone.

A stork shower was held recently for Mrs. Jack Parr at the home of Mrs. Norma Condon. Mrs. Parr, better known as Arvella, was greatly surprised. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Perry Patterson, Mrs. William Kaltrider, and to myself for winning the games played during the evening. Those attending this occasion were Mrs. Louis Funk, George Wolff, Vernon Cline, Eldon Lind, Leslie Peterson, Andrew Rabel, William Kaltrider and yours truly, the hostess and hostess. Mrs. Parr expects the new heir in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Funk Jr., are expecting Mr. and Mrs.

Registration will be from Sept. 1 to 10. All children will be taken, but each child who is to register must be accompanied by his parents and have his birth certificate.

Harbor General Hospital is in much need of volunteers. I have had some pleasant hours over there this past week. Mostly I would like to tell you of the "Candy Strippers." This group of girls and boys from the ages of 15 to 18 has such duties as answering telephones, feeding patients, reading and cleaning. These volunteers are needed first and foremost to give specific service. They are needed not to take go as far as possible in the community. These children can start training right there for doctors, nurses, X-ray work and any other work found in or around a hospital. They are asked to work only four hours a week, or more if they desire. All volunteers receive a free meal for four hours work. For more information on this program please call Mrs. E. A. McAllister, director of volunteers. Her phone number is FA 8-2380.
