Beta Sigma Phi Unit Closes Year with Clever Program

Decorative uses of lighting and illumination in the home were outlined by guest speaker Thomas Leo Lyons when Omicron Pi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held its final meeting of the club year May 23. Following his talk Lyons illustrated the points he had made by taking the group through the Luxtrol miniature home with which he is currently on nation-wide tour.

The business meeting following Lyons' program was conducted by the new officers of the chapter with Mrs. Jack Hadley, president, in charge. She was assisted by Mrs. Donald Heaney, vice president; Mrs. Wayne Crane, recording secretary; Mrs. John D. D'Ornellas, treasurer, and Mrs. Joe Banks, extension officer. Mrs. Joe Wolfe, corresponding secretary, was not present.
