

Rev. Jolley To Speak For Presby

Coliseum Fireworks Show

Tickets are now on sale for the American Legion's 24th annual fireworks show at Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum on July 4.

In addition to the fireworks display, recognized as the world's largest, the Legion this year has scheduled a mammoth three-ring circus to precede the fireworks display.

Rev. Truman M. Jolley will speak on "When God's Line Is Busy" next Sunday morning at the First Presbyterian Church, 1842 Gardena Blvd.

The high school graduates of the parish will receive special recognition. Those being honored are Norman Sprankle, Joyce Johnson, and Janet La-bory of Gardena High school, Jim Hoffman, Arty Willemson and Gerry Terhogan of North

High, Marvin Rothery of Leuzinger.

At Westminster Fellowship at 7 p.m., Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hoffman will be sponsors. David Easton and Judy Herron will lead worship. Sonya Carlson, chairman of the Outreach Commission, will lead in the discussion. Recreation has been planned by Julia Pace and Georgia Newlin. Carol and Crist and Ray Bittner will be
