George Bradbeer Appointed Manager of Phone District

Appointment of George Bradbeer to district commercial manager and Ben A. Hamm as district plant superintendent was announced this week by Pacific Telephone.

The district includes San Pedro, Wilmington, Torrance, Lomita, and Avalon telephones.

In his new assignment Bradbeer will be responsible for business office operations for 65,000 telephones in an area of over 132 square miles.

He succeeds Emyln L. Jones who has been named to head the newly created Compton district, previously part of the San Pedro district.

Hamm succeeds Ernest J. Silcock who also moves to the new Compton district. Hamm will supervise activities of 200 installation and maintenance people responsible for Terminal, Fairfax, Davenport, and Avalon telephones.

Bradbeer began his telephone career as a groundman. Progressing through various commercial assignments, he was appointed manager of the San Pedro exchange in 1952.

Hamm started with Pacific Telephone as an installer. Subsequent assignments included those of test deskman in 1950 and installation foreman in 1952. In his most recent assignment he served in the Los Angeles headquarters as area personnel supervisor.

Westcott Graduates from University of Oregon

Stewart E. Westcott, of Torrance, was a candidate for the bachelor of science degree at the University of Oregon's 79th annual commencement yesterday at Hayward Field, Eugene, Ore.

Dean Douglas Horton, of Harvard University's divinity school, was the main speaker.
