

Double-Header Breakfast Party Held for Couples Moving Away

By ALICE PERKIN
FA 8-5265

A "double header" breakfast party was held last Tuesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hagenbaugh, by the Madrona P.T.A. Board in honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hardinhaus who are leaving shortly for Burbank, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. Ottosen, who are moving to Garden Grove. Members of the board helped co-hostess the party and included Mrs. Lou Burrows, Mrs. Beverly Dyer, and Mrs. Mildred McDade. Over 25 guests were present including George Marich, principal of the school. Refreshments of juice, breakfast rolls and coffee were served out on the patio. The honored guests received jewelry sets as farewell tokens.

A 10-year-old's birthday is at ways a happy affair but it was especially so last Saturday for Sandy McElhoo, of 1204 Felt. Her party was celebrated first with refreshments of ice cream, punch and a delightful chocolate cake (which she artistically decorated herself in pink roses), and later a trip to a nearby roller-skating rink with her guests. Those attending included Candy Burrows, Eleanor Campbell, Nancy Underwood, Cathy McGuire, Jackie Hooser and Monique Van De Paul.

"Fly-Up" ceremony Sunday June 3, was celebrated by Brownie Troop 635 at Averill Park in San Pedro. This is a ceremony which indicates symbolically the ritual advancement of the younger girls from the Brownie Troop into the Girl Scouts. Making the affair even more memorable to the girls they crossed a small bridge during the ceremony to visualize the actual moving from one set of goals to another. Refreshments were served at the picnic also — Hawaiian punch, ice cream cups and homemade cookies. All the parents and girls attending totaled about 50 people. A flag ceremony closed the program. Girls attending: Georgianne Baker, Diane Battershell, Denise Brady, Judy Breaker, Pat Cantle, Donna Holland, Cathy Knutson, Lorraine Lewis, Sandra Noble, Beverley Orchard, Velora Plank, Sharon Stuehey, and Mary Welstead. Celebrating Memorial Day with an outdoor barbecue for friends were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Striebeck, of 2818 Orondo. Gathering around the party chatted over hors d'oeuvres and soft drinks. Later they enjoyed an Italian treat of Lasagna and all the gourmet trimmings that go with it. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Klinzing, Don Minor, George Baker, and Everett Robertson.

Houseguesting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coe

of 2854 Eldorado, is Mr. Eric Coe. Arriving in February Mr. Coe's father has had such a wonderful vacation sightseeing Southern California that his stay is indefinite. The family has taken trips to Big Bear, Arrowhead, down to Tijuana, and up around Palos Verdes. They are looking forward now to a week end excursion to Las Vegas and Palm Springs.

Three fishermen left Friday noon for White Mountains, a ridge of mountains on the Nevada-California border, and returned Monday night successful and happy. They were Tom Edmunds, Phil Patten, of 905 Cranbrook, and William Crocker, of 809 Cranbrook. Camping out the full time, the men were mainly interested in catching trout, which is the "specialty of the house" at White Mountain. Exhausting but well worth while was the hurried trip to Roseville, Calif., that Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Carstenson, of 903 Fonthill made over the week end. Leaving Thursday night and returning Sunday morning the family gathered for a reunion in Roseville and also to attend the high school graduation of the Carstenson's niece, Miss Sherrie Carstenson. There wasn't much time for more than the graduation and an outdoor picnic at the local park in the "cautiful weather. Other members of the family attending the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Carstenson, Mrs. Joyce Michels, Glenda and Jimmy, and Miss Marion Carstenson.

An overnight camping trip can be an exciting time for youngsters and the trip taken by the boys in Scout Troop 201, sponsored by the P.T.A. was no exception. The troop makes these trips monthly. This one was held at the Circle X Ranch, up by the Ventura county line, 23 miles from Oxnard. Fourteen boys left Saturday morning at eight from school and stayed overnight, returning home Sunday afternoon. They were accompanied by fathers Bog Hagenbaugh, Bill McDade, and Wayne Norman.

Couple Vacationing in Mexico Meet Neighbors During Outing

By VERA C. WRIGHT

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lindbrook have just returned from a 3-week vacation in Mexico. The highlight of the entire trip was the special sight-seeing week in the company of much surprised neighbors whom they met in Mexico City. You cannot go in their front door without "Estoy, estas, esta, estamos, estais, estan," etcetera! Wish I had studied Spanish in high school!!!

Mrs. Sarah R. Hooker has spent the past two weeks in a rest home in Pasadena and it is with a prayer in our heart that we are wishing she is able to return to Torrance soon!

Mr. David Minear of Luray, Kas., now residing at 18312 Roslin Ave., has the distinct honor of being the only gentleman who receives homemade bread from his loving wife by mail! Isn't love grand!

Robert Gonzalez, Wayne LeFrancois, Harold McKee, and Tony Giagrande of Scout Pack 967 with the assistance of pretty Pat LeFrancois, worked the entire El Nido Gardens area for the City of Hope, South Bay Division. Nice work teenagers!

The 17th season of thoroughbred racing finds many of our friends and neighbors at Hollywood Park. Those having fun galore are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jopson who entertained Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Miller of Kansas with an afternoon at Hollywood Park and dinner at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel.

Guests from Sacramento and San Francisco helped Mr. and Mrs. William Denning celebrate their 10th anniversary. Among the eight couples who traveled to help their friends celebrate the joyous occasion were Robert Dean and James Hill who had gone to college with Bill Denning.

The Harold Harding patio became a flower-filled paradise with hundreds of geraniums floating in the midst of their fish pond alongside their patio, adding glamour to the birthday party given for their teen-age son and daughter, Harold Henry and Deborah Ann, who had birthdays during the month of May. Over 32 young adults gathered under the watchful eye of Mr. and Mrs. Harding, Mr. and Mrs. J. Leonard, and Mr. and Mrs. George Lee, to enjoy an evening of dining, dancing, game-playing with gifts galore for the honored two.

Birthdays in the McVey family are something to talk about for Kenneth McVey celebrated his birthday with his family group with dinner at the Hacienda. After the children were taken home and put to bed Naomi and Ken proceeded to the Palladium where they danced to the music of Harry James, then finished off the evening with a romp at the Moulin Rouge. No wonder Mr. McVey wishes he had more than one birthday a year!

Get well wishes are extended to Claudine R. Blake, of 16825 Thornburne Ave., who has been "under the weather" for several weeks. Her doctor recommends rest and quiet will do her world of good. I bet that a get well card will do her some good also!

Peggy LeFrancois, 1902 Firmona, is another person in our community who would like to receive a card from her friends for she has been having a long siege of the flu!

The tallest gladioli and the largest petunias can be found in the garden of Clara Davis, of 18337 Roslin Ave., who is busily engaged in making hers the prettiest garden in the entire community.

Palm Springs was the honeymoon destination for young Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rushing who were married the first day of June. After their honeymoon sojourn, the newweds will reside in Redondo Beach. This was the couple that received six sets of silver! Enough to last them a lifetime.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Nelson were surprised when they were entertained by neighbors at a surprise dinner party honoring their fifth year of marriage. Large, beautifully wrapped boxes disclosed a black negligee for Marvin and prisoner striped pajamas for Marie!

Old Faithful geyser in Yellowstone National Park throws 250,000 gallons of steaming hot water 150 feet into the air and performs this feat about every 70 minutes.
