MISS GINNY SANDSTROM
... chosen representative

Ginny Sandstrom Attends Michigan Scout Round-Up

Miss Ginny Sandstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Sandstrom, 1514 Madrid, will capably represent the girl scouts of this area at the Michigan Roundup to be held at Highland Park, near Pontiac. Miss Sandstrom will leave Los Angeles on a special chartered train on June 25.

On Tuesday the girls will tour the Grand Canyon where they will have luncheon and breakfast before boarding the train for Amarillo; their next stop. From Amarillo, they go to Chicago and on to Detroit where they will take a bus to the roundup, which will continue for 10 days.

The return schedule includes a tour of Chicago, a 61 miles mountain trip including the Royal Gorge in Colorado, tour of Salt Lake City and on to San Francisco for a tour of that city before returning to Los Angeles on July 15.

Ginny has been a Brownie and joined the Brownie troop 631 in March, 1949, flying up to troop 1299 in January 1951.

Ginny is one of the 36 girls who will leave from Los Angeles. She entered the city-wide competition, and was chosen one of 90 as the outcome of the "Little Roundup." The girls were then tested on manners, personality, friendliness and personal qualities in general and again Ginny was among the top 36 chosen to make the trip.

Since the girls will represent the Southland, many trips have been taken to acquaint them with the studios and other places of interest so that they may intelligently answer questions concerning their state.

On Feb. 22, the girls visited Universal studios and on Feb.

Scavenger Hunt Slated For June 26

Ladies of the Elks will hold a scavenger hunt Tuesday evening, June 26. The hunt will begin with a meeting of all Elks ladies at 8 at the lodge. Lists will be supplied for each car and a limited time given in which to secure as many items on the list as possible. Upon returning to the lodge, prizes will be awarded and refreshments served. A door prize will also be given.

The next meeting will be July 10 and two social events have been scheduled for July. On July 24 members will be hostesses in their homes for an evening of cards. At 10 p.m. all guests will gather at the lodge for refreshments and the awarding of prizes. Reservations are being taken by Juanita Littleton and Opal Brubaker.

On Saturday evening, July 28, the ladies and their husbands will gather at the rampus room at Higgins Brickyard, 2217 W. 174th for a barbecue dinner and an evening of dancing.
