Perry PTA Has Luncheon For Teachers

The executive board of the Perry school PTA held a "Get-away" luncheon for the faculty on the last day of school, June 14 in the teachers' room.

The western motif was carried out as a theme. Tables were decorated in ranch house fashion. Stage coaches, oxen teams, served as center pieces. Place mats were handmade, using various brand marks as the design.

The committee serving were attired in cowboy and Indian apparel. Holsters with guns assured the guests a "bang-up" time. The menu consisted of chow wagon fare, homemade waffles of the executive board.

John W. Strom, principal, thanked the executive board and the PTA for their cooperation between home and school.

On the committee serving were Mmes. T. R. Jackson, chairman; R. F. Dohner, Wilson, Willey, James Nichols, Kenneth Judd, Frank Stout, Carl Swanson, E. A. Shuster, Curtis Hirsch, and Kenneth W. McVey.

259th Place Grandmother Twice in Week

"Teamwork Accomplished These Goals" was the theme of the June 7 PTA meeting held in the school auditorium on Thursday afternoon. The A6 graduating class was presented to the audience. They sang a selection of three songs.

Mrs. Michael Foxhoven and Mrs. William Shier installed the officers for the coming year. Using a ship's crew for a symbol the following women were seated: Mrs. Palmer Orseth, president; W. N. Kopley, first vice president; H. B. McDonald, second vice president; D. P. Bowling, third vice president; H. M. Rabjohn, secretary; T. R. Biglin, treasurer; R. E. Christofferson, auditor; R. P. Boderman, historian and W. E. Zell, parliamentarian.

Mrs. R. P. Boderman gave the historian's report on the activities of the past year. Refreshments were served.

FAMILY TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. H. Werner Sommer of 4538 Greenmeadows spent one week on a motor trip to Oak Creek Canyon and Grand Canyon. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Hans Sommer and family of Phoenix, Ariz. Accompanying them on the trip was Mrs. Dora Sommer, also of Torrance.

While recuperating in Torrance Memorial Hospital, Mrs. Douglas Jones of 25409 Woodward Ave., Lomita, became a grandmother twice in one week. Both arrivals were born in the opposite wings of the hospital.

The first to arrive was a 6 lb. 15 oz. Marcella Ann, who arrived May 31 at 7:19 a.m., and is the second child for Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jones of 25415 Woodward Ave., Lomita. The little miss was greeted by a brother, David.

Second grandchild, also a girl, arrived June 7 and weighed 7 lbs. 3 oz. She has been named Patti Lynn and is sister to Kathy. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Norman Jones of 2157 W. 255th St., Lomita.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Teel of 25119 Oak St.

AUXILIARY PARTY

American Legion auxiliary will sponsor a card party tomorrow (Tuesday) evening at the Legion hall. All card games will be played with prizes for the winners. Refreshments will be served.

Grand Officer Visits Lodge

Amaranth Court #61, welcomed the return of Honored Lady Estella DesJardins, grand representative to the State of Oklahoma, Thursday evening, at their regular meeting, held in Torrance Masonic Temple.

Amid an array of varied colored evening gowns of the officers and honored ladies, Royal Matron Gladys Matherell and Royal Patron Clyde Satterfield conducted the business of the order. Escorted and presented were Honored Lady Pearl Mahaffie, assistant-grand lecturer, Honored Lady Estella DesJardins, grand representative, 10 past royal matrons and three past royal patrons.

Highlight of "Good of the Order" was the report of Honored Lady Estella DesJardins, who as grand representative to the State of Oklahoma, represented the California grand court, during the tenth annual session of the "grand court" of Oklahoma, held May 24, 25 and 26, in Oklahoma City.

After relating many interesting and entertaining experiences, during the session and in subordinate courts, of Oklahoma jurisdiction, Honored Lady DesJardins remarked that the 30-day visit was one of the highlights of her Amaranthian career.

Banquet hall activities included the presentation of gifts by the royal matron, to the oldest father, Sir Knight Perry Lingren and to the youngest grandfather, Sir Knight David Jones. The royal matron, officers and members complimented Honored Lady Margaret Radcliffe, chairman for the evening, on the lovely decorations and excellent refreshments.

MISS EVELYN SCHMALD (Gray's photo) Receives Honor

Evelyn Schmalld To Attend Girls' State in Sacramento

Miss Evelyn Schmalld, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmalld, 428 Calle Mayor, has been chosen to represent Torrance at the 13th California Girls State to be held in Sacramento from June 20 through June 28.

Miss Schmalld will be a senior next year at Torrance High school. She is a music major and plays for the Tartar choir.

Girls State is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary and its purpose is to encourage and develop a deeper interest in and study of the problems of government beyond what the girls get in high schools today.

The girls will set up their city governments and will elect their city officials. City councils will be organized and the mayors will make such appointments as are allowed by the General Municipal Corporation Act of California for sixth class cities. A public inaugural ceremony is held.

Recreation is not forgotten and music, glee clubs, folk and rhythmic dancing will be the recognized recreational activities each day and a program of instruction and entertainment will be provided each evening.

Mrs. E. Stone Attends Iris Show in Utah

Mrs. Elsa Stone, 4010 Spencer St., recently attended the Utah Iris society's tenth annual show held at the state capitol building in Salt Lake City.

Exhibited at the show, which was attended by Iris enthusiasts from the Western states including the Shari, Fort Bridger, Ruffled, A p a c h e, Young Brave, Star Crossed and Inca Chief, a beautiful blossom in burnished golden-bronze which was awarded the "Queen of the Show" trophy.

Saturday evening Mrs. Stone attended the society's banquet in the Russell Cafe where she heard Marion Walker, president of the American Iris Society, speak.

Among the highlights of her trip was her visit to the Gold room, located on the rotunda and serves as the governor's reception room. A great deal of gold is used in this room's decorations. The golden brown marble used in the decoration comes from Utah and the harmonizing rug was made in Scotland. In this room the hall of mirrors plated with gold instead of silver and made in France, was another interesting feature.

Halldale

Using a rainbow jewel theme Mrs. E. M. Bernadin, first vice president of Gateway Council PTA, who served two years as president of Halldale PTA and two years as president of Narbonne PTA, installed the new officers of Halldale PTA at the final meeting of the year.

As each officer assumed her position, she was presented with a beautiful earring corsage, which represented a certain color that symbolized the challenge each position held.

Mrs. Bernadin was assisted by Mrs. John H. Delaigne in distributing the earring corsage symbols and repeating verses related to each officer's responsibilities.

Invited were Mmes. E. N. Reese, president; Louis Funk, first vice president; Guy Adams, second vice president; Judson Bowers, financial secretary; F. E. Dye, corresponding secretary; Frank Bowling, treasurer; Wm. H. Dunston, historian; W. L. Harvey, parliamentarian.

Mrs. E. R. Alves and Mrs. Bill Overstreet were reinstalled to second terms as recording secretary and auditor, respectively.

Mrs. Reese will name her committee chairmen at a later date. Accomplishments of the past year were given by Mrs. W. L. Harvey, historian.

Mrs. Fred Schimmel, presented to Mrs. Goolsby, outgoing president, the record book which was compiled by Mrs. R. J. LeBlond, record book chairman; Mrs. Wayne H. Vinson, press and clippings chairman.

BABY SHOWER

Mrs. Howard Elliott, president of the Greenthumbers Garden Club, was the honoree at a surprise baby shower given by club members at the home of Mrs. Eldon Sellmeyer, vice president.

Decorations included baby bottles filled with white Esther Reed daisies on the table. Mrs. Elliott was also presented with a corsage of daisies.

Among the club members attending were: Mmes. John Knight, David Shepherd, George Horton, Maude Volgemott, Al Mategorin, William Fitzgerald, Elinor Greenwood, Ethel Kordick, Richard Handley, Earl Huback, Eldon Sellmeyer and the honor guest.

Mrs. Frank Bowling was in charge of the program which featured students of rooms 1 and 2. The group sang several selections under Mary Halverson's direction.

Honoring the faculty for their work during the last year the Halldale PTA executive board prepared and served a turkey dinner recently in the auditorium.

Mrs. Goolsby, president, entertained her executive board and chairman at a luncheon on Friday, June 16, in her home. Mrs. Goolsby thanked her board for their cooperation during the year.

Rebekahs Plan Program, Hear Reports

At the Wednesday evening meeting of the Torrance Rebekah Lodge in the Masonic Hall, 2336 Cabrillo Ave., plans were made to attend the reception for the State President, Mrs. Agnes Altendorf at Eagle Rock on Saturday evening, June 16.

At this time a skit was given by members of the "Baby Lodge" (Torrance).

Ray Ferrin was elected a trustee to take the place of trustee to take the place of Mr. Ferrin will serve the remainder of the three terms.

A report of the recent convention was given by the delegates of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs in Long Beach. Mrs. Nelson was the narrator. Among the other items of interest was the fact that there were 1034 delegates present and these delegates represented 383 Rebekah Lodges of the State of California. The sum of $410 was taken on the floor of the assembly for floor relief. This was in addition to the sum given earlier in the year by the Rebekahs and Odd Fellows of the state.

Mrs. Olive Veatch was appointed on the committee for scholarships by the president, Agnes Altendorf. Mrs. Retta Nelson will be magazine chairman for District 66 under Mrs. Vera Moxley of Gardena.

The Noble Grand of Torrance Lodge appointed the following chairmen for the coming year at this meeting: Good fellowship, Mrs. Patricia Young; Pilgrimage for Youth, Mrs. Sally Benskin; Magazine, Mrs. Angie Desarie; and Publicity, Mrs. Belva Brase. Mrs. Belva Brase, pointed as hostess on the card party sponsored by the Rebekahs for the Odd Fellow Lodge on the first Wednesday of each month. The next party will be on July 4 at 8:00 p.m.

The next meeting will be on Wednesday, June 27, with the brother- of the lodge acting as hosts.

Following the business meeting an informal reception was held in the dining room for the members of the staff and the delegates who were: Mesdames Olive Veatch, Ma Nelson, Catherine Vash and Shirley Leetz.

Mrs. Clara Woodson was the hostess of the evening and she was assisted by Mrs. Winifred Brase, Mrs. Sally Benskin, Mrs. Pat Young and Mrs. Madaline Hand.
