El Camino Summer School Registration Set Tomorrow

Registration of the 124 junior college graduation, prepare for upper division university work, ready themselves for employment or provide personal enjoyment," the director added.

"Small summer session classes permit instructors to pay great attention to the needs of the individual student. Also, the student, concentrating on one or two subjects, is enabled to use his time to greater advantage than he can during regular session," Sloan concluded.

AROUND THE GARDENS AND PLAZA

Summer Weather Beckons Outdoor Enthusiasts for Parties

By Alice Perkin FA 8-5265

Our beautiful weather is inviting everyone in the neighborhood to "come on out and barbecue!" Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Clark started the trend last Saturday night with guests and children enjoying delicious charcoal potatoes, barbecued chicken, cheese rolls, ice cream and coffee. After the outdoor feast the couples gathered for cards and dancing. Later in the week Mr. and Mrs. Jack Klinzing, of 2829 Onrado, picked up the same idea and held another barbecue. This time guests enjoyed soft drinks, dips and hors d'oeuvres while they danced and chatted. Around midnight a late buffet of barbecued steaks, curried potatoes, tossed salad, strawberry shortcake and coffee was served. Those attending both affairs were Mr. and Mrs. Rod Clark Mr. and Mrs. Jack Klinzing, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Perkin.

The Torrance Art group met last Tuesday night in Hermosa at the home of Mrs. Pat Spingold. The purpose of the meeting was to make their plans for the coming season. Besides planning future meetings to include films, speakers and demonstrations, the group decided to hold an open air Art Exhibit during the dedication of the new Civic Center. Members were served refreshments of cake and coffee after the meeting. Those from our neighborhood attending were Vicky Feldon, Jean Townsend, Ola Laurt, Mrs. Rudy Park. Their next meeting will be held in July.

Las Ochos Senoras bridge club met this last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Betsy Casey, of 3318 Torrance Blvd. Candies and favors were nibbled on as guests competed for bridge prizes. After the games refreshments of angle food cake, tea and coffee were served. Those attending included Ruth Patton, Margaret Tripple, Alice Perkin, Helen Crocker, Aileen Emma and Betty Edmunds.

Little one-year-old Susan Amos celebrated her birthday right along with her mother. The combined celebration was held outdoors and featured barbecued hamburgers, hot dogs, all the trimmings and a decorated birthday cake wishing mother and daughter "Happy Birthday!" Lemonade was served later as the family gathered to chat and offer their best wishes. Those attending were Mrs. Jennie Brink, Miss Murial Brink, Miss Mary Jane Brink and Mrs. Harry DeMeire, Paul and Jan, Mr. and Mrs. John Brink and Al Keethe.

Friends gathered at the Perkin home Saturday night for a pot-luck party. Chatting and dancing through the earlier part of the evening, they gathered around the table for a joint buffet of ham casserole, turkey sandwiches, tossed salad, hot rolls, apple pie and coffee. Those attending were Messrs. and Mmes. Lou Dyer, Jack Klinzing and Gordon Capps.

Winning a scholarship for six summer weeks at Idelwild Camp was Mrs. Paul Harestad, of 2849 Onrado. She will be a featured performer in two play productions while she is there. An active theater enthusiast and former president of Torrance's Accent! Theatre! Mrs. Harestad is sure to be successful in her two forthcoming roles. Joining her for the six weeks at camp are her two sons Curtis and Gregory.

Tally-Hi Bridge Club met last Monday night at the home of Mrs. Pat Clark. Members and guests were served refreshments of chocolate ice cream cake, candies, nuts and coffee. Walking off with honors and high score was Mrs. Aileen Capps. Those attending were Mmes. Madge Graham, Alice Perkin, Madeline Zaborowski, Audrey Pipkin, Charlotte Klinzing, Helen Crocker and Aileen Capps.

"Truth can indeed be stranger than fiction!" Mr. and Mrs. William Starr, of 1308 Font-hill, held a party last Saturday night for their college friends. The strange or unusual coincidence is that the wives all belonged to the same college sorority and the husbands all belonged to the same college fraternity! The Santa Barbara graduates always have a difficult time getting a word in edgewise when the group gets together, they're so busy catching up on news of each other. Last Saturday night the Starrs served cocktails and hors d'oeuvres and later a dinner in the Mexican theme. Enchiladas, tossed salad, grilled rolls, baked Alaska cake and coffee made up the menu. Those attending: Messrs. and Mmes. William Horicks, John Daniels, Al Katich and Don Gillis.

A wonderful afternoon party was held Friday at the home of Mrs. Lou Dyer, 2838 Onrado St. Entertaining neighbors and friends, she first served wine cocktails and later a delicious luncheon of molded salad, toasted home-made bread, strawberry pound cake, coffee and tea. Guests later enjoyed an afternoon of bridge. Those attending were Mrs. Ethel Sears, Mrs. Charlotte Klinzing, Mrs. Gordon Capps, Mrs. Helen Loranger, Mrs. Alice Perkin, Mrs. Pat Clark, Mrs. Marylee Boswell, and Mrs. Jessie Bauman.

Pot-lucks are as much a thing of summer as barbecues. Last Saturday night neighbors and friends got together and held a tasty pot-luck dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clifford, of 2822 Eldorado St. Cocktails were served before hand and a supper of baked ham, beans, buttered rolls, tossed salad, relishes, a chiffon cake and coffee was served.
