R. A. Bingham's Club Gives
 Entertain Bon Voyage
 For Members

The fifth birthday of their son, Larry, was the incentive for a day of festivities last Sunday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Bingham, 1510 Encracia Ave.

In the afternoon Larry and a group of friends enjoyed a circus party. They were taken to Redondo where they rode the merry-go-round and other rides. They returned to the Bingham home where the huge circus birthday cake was served with other refreshments amid circus decorations.

Joining Larry for the occasion were his sister, Robin, Dale and Louise Hoag, Janice and Gordon Lee Goetch, Nita Shidler, Lawrence and David Hardgrove, Bobby and Marty Klink, Ricky Clayton, Bryant and Wayne Smith, Kurt and Jill Smith, Billy Gibson and Donna Cochran.

In the evening, Dr. and Mrs. Bingham entertained at a buffet dinner. Their guests were: Messrs. and Mmes. J. M. Christensen, William Gibson of Downey, Roy Lehman and Linda and Ted of San Fernando; Matt Kelley and Mary Kay; Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Hoag and Mrs. Catherine Millikan.

MISS BARBARA CAGE
 ... To Vie for Honor

Barbara Cage Will Represent
 North Torrance Fuchsia Unit

Miss Barbara Cage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Cage, 17326 Glenburn Ave., was chosen by the North Torrance Fuchsia society to represent its branch in the Fuchsia Queen contest to be held at the California National Fuchsia Society's Midsummer Shade Plant Show. The queen will be chosen on the opening night of the show, Friday, June 29, at 9 p.m. at the Municipal Auditorium in Long Beach. The queen will reign over the three day show and will be presented with a valuable prize.

Miss Cage will be a junior at North High next year. She holds membership in the Scholarship society, North High Jullians, is past treasurer of the sophomore class, member of the GAA and will be a cheer leader next year.

Other than her high school activities, Miss Cage is secretary for the Senior Harbor Planning board for Girl Scouts and will be a counselor in training at the Ostito Rancho Girl Scout Camp at Big Bear this summer.

The North Torrance Fuchsia society will enter a booth at the mid-summer Shade Plant Show which will attract fuchsia societies from the entire southland. The local society will enter the landscape garden category and Mrs. Larry Dorsey will serve as show chairman.

MISS MARY ANN SLACK
 ... Enters Contest

Mary Ann Slack Is Fuchsia
 Society's Queen Candidate

Miss Mary Ann Slack has been selected candidate for Miss Fuchsia of 1956 to represent the Lomita Fuchsia society in the queen contest at the annual Midsummer Shade Plant Show. The show sponsored by the California National Fuchsia society, will be held in the Long Beach Municipal auditorium from June 29 through July 31.

Miss Slack is a senior at Torrance High school where she is a member of the Thespians society, scholarship society, GAA, Rally club and Coquette Y-Teens.

The candidate has worked as a photographer on the annual staff and plays the cello in the school orchestra.

The queen contest is being inaugurated for the first time this year. She will be in competition with other candidates from throughout the southland.

Selection of the queen will take place at 9 p.m. on Friday, June 29.

Hours of the show are from 6 p.m. until 11 p.m. on Friday, noon until 11 p.m. on Saturday and noon until 6 p.m. on Sunday.

Cluckey-Hornback Nuptials
 Read at St. Margaret Mary's

Miss Sharon Lee Cluckey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Cluckey, 2622 Dalemead, exchanged her wedding vows with Archie E. Hornback, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hornback of Menlo St., in a 2 o'clock ceremony Saturday afternoon, June 23, at St. Margaret Mary's Catholic Church in Lomita.

The bride, who was escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of white lace and net over taffeta. A crown of lilies of the valley held the fingertip veil and she carried a white prayerbook topped with valley lilies.

Mrs. Evelyn Eiler served as her sister's honor attendant. Her gown was of turquoise net over taffeta and she carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

James Jones served as best man and wedding guests were seated by Curtis Eiler and Lawrence Cluckey.

The Rev. James V. Hagerly officiated at the wedding.

Frank Fisher played the wedding marches and Ted Peckem sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day."

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Eiler, 2634 Dalemead. Miss Joyce Templin was in charge of the guest book and gifts. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Patricia Pelz and Mrs. Norma Hudson. The couple are now on a two weeks' honeymoon in Oregon and Washington. They will reside in Torrance.

The bride was a member of this year's graduating class at Torrance High school. The bridegroom was graduated from Banning High in 1953.

Shower Fetes
 Mrs. Maille

Miss Carol Christensen was hostess at a lovely shower honoring Mrs. Doyle K. Maille, the former Patricia Linn, on Friday, June 15. The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Marie Manning.

A miniature cradle filled with gladioli and carnations was used as a centerpiece for the table which was decorated in the pastel shades of yellow and green.

Many lovely gifts were presented to the honoree by the following guests:

Beverly Griffiths, Margie Frey, Marie Soto and Ann Griffiths, Burnetta Linn, Lucille Leko, Margaret Mahn, Cleda Maille, Betty Jo Waddell, Betty Cormany, Jessie Morales, Jackie Leko and Roberta Mahn.

Winning prizes at games were Beverly Griffiths, Margie Frey, Marie Soto and Ann Griffiths.

Parties For Bride-elect

Miss Jeannine Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Rogers, 3320 W. 187th St., whose wedding to Jerry Walsh will be solemnized tomorrow evening at the Church of the Nazarene in Lynwood has been complimented with several parties during the past few weeks.

Mrs. Joe Pelezzero of Lakewood entertained with a miscellaneous shower for the bride-elect. A personal shower in her honor was given by Miss Billie Wilkins at her Lawndale home and recently Mrs. Nettie Householder, aunt of the bridegroom-to-be, was hostess at a shower at her home in Hawthorne.

ST. LOUIS GUESTS
 Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Snodgrass, 1614 Beech Ave., entertained for several days last week Mrs. Snodgrass' brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. O'Brien of St. Louis who are on an extensive western trip.
