Los Cancioneros Presents Award to Mrs. Arthur Lytle

As a fitting tribute to the many contributions of time and effort Los Cancioneros chairman Mrs. Arthur Lytle has made to this group in past years, its members presented her with their annual Keynote Award. The honor was bestowed upon her at the recent annual summer supper party held in the William Beckman patio in Hollywood Riviera.

Mrs. Lytle of Hollywood Riviera has served as chairman of the busy choral organization

Methodist Services Set for New Home in Riviera School

By Em French
FR 5-1390

At long last Hollywood Riviera has its own Methodist Church. Temporarily services are being held at El Retro club house, but starting July 29 they will be held in the Riviera School cafeteria. Church school is at 9:45 a.m. and church is at 11. The young people are organizing a Methodist Youth Fellowship for Sunday evenings. Reverend Tom Dillard from Alabama has been assigned to the church by the Methodist Conference.

Mary Jeanne Marks, daughter of Royal Marks of Phoenix, Ariz., and Mrs. Carr Marks of Los Angeles and William Elaine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Blaine of Lomita, were married June 15 in the First Presbyterian Church of San Pedro. Mary Jeanne has been living in Riviera while attending Torrance High School and El Camino College. Judi Swanson, 217 Camino Delas Colinas was a bridesmaid; Don Hubbard was best man and Elmer Ellsworth and Ted Hyder were ushers. Mrs. Robert Giljohann sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Love Eternal." Among the 75 guests at the reception following the wedding were Rivierans Marybeth Hornbeck and Allan, Vivian Fischer, Dee Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pinkney, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Cochran, and Carol Fitzgerald. The bride's great-grandmother, Mrs. Hattie George, flew from Phoenix for the wedding and is staying with Marybeth Hornbeck for awhile.

Nancy Lee Cramer, 625 Calle Miramar, is in Cheyenne, Wyo., attending a training school for stewardesses as she plans to work for United Airlines. She was recently graduated from Colorado Women's College in Denver, Colo. with an associate of arts degree.

Little Mary Margaret Law, daughter of Jo and Pete Law, 437 Via La Soledad, is home from the hospital—well not exactly. She's out of the hospital, but she's next door at Mrs. DiFato's, where she'll stay until her two brothers, Casey, 4, and Felix, 2, get over the chicken pox. Mary Margaret was born in the Hawthorne Hospital six weeks ago, but was taken to the Children's Hospital in Los Angeles when only four days old. She's doing fine now and we're all happy for her.

Mrs. Beatrice Kling stopped over at the Freeman home last week en route to Africa where she lives as a missionary. Her daughter, Virginia May, and Mr. and Mrs. William Freeman were here, too, but have returned to their home in Lindsay, Calif.

If you see an almost-white Siamese cat and he answers to the name of "Chang" call Bea Semos, 236 Calle de Andalucia, (Frontier 5-3607). He may seem like just another pussy but he's their pet and they love him.

Mary Pinkney, retiring president of Las Vecinas, gave a cocktail party for the retiring board and committee chairman and their husbands Saturday night. Everyone had a wonderful time, especially so beoverseeing such activities as the Sing for your Suppers, outside engagements and the Annual Concerts. Victor Kilburn of Torrance teacher at Newton School and resident of Torrance, will assume the duties of chairman for the 1956-57 season.

Recipients of gifts signifying the gratitude of the entire chorus for their efforts this year were Don Bremer, director and Ray Wallace of Rolling Hills, producer of "Whale of a Tale." These were presented by Mrs. Lytle.

Some 40 members and guests enjoyed a buffet supper hosted by Helen Hull of Manhattan Beach. Among special guests seated around the open patio fireplace for the party were Tom and Barbara Mabin of Hollywood Riviera. Mrs. Mabin was the first director of Los Cancioneros, guiding it to success in its first four years of existence. The evening was concluded with the tape recording play-back of the music from the Sixth Annual Concert.

Club Studies Show Plans

Due to the success of the recent flower show, the Green-thumbers are busy with plans for their next show during the coming year. At the meeting last week plans were discussed and colored slides were shown. It was also announced that Mrs. Howard Elliott, president of the club, had her third child—a boy—on June 21. The young man has been named David Hamilton.

Four guests present at the meeting were Mmes. Al Koslek, John Oldaker, Louis Wilhelm and Jay Cornwall. Green-thumbers present were Mmes. David Shepperd, Al Matorgin, John Knight, Clarence Barrow, George Horton, Ed Viscofli, Paul Kolleck, Jr., William Fitzgerald, Richard Handley, Earl Hubacek, and Eldon Sellmeyer, vice president, who conducted the meeting in the absence of Mrs. Elliott.

cause she showed all the movies that have been taken at Las Vecinas breakfasts and husband's nights since 1952.

Hollywood Riviera Cub Scout Pack 718C held its final monthly meeting for the season at El Retro Park Monday evening. A successful newspaper drive on June 9 was reported. Ted Barz and Robert Edwards were honored as winners in the 10 and nine year old division, respectively, of the track meet held June 16.
