

Juniors Are Guests on NBC 'It Could Be You' TV Show

"It Could Be You," new Ralph Edwards television show on NBC featuring Junior Women's clubs from the Southland, proved a delightful experience last Tuesday morning when the Torrance Juniors accepted the invitation to be guests on the show.

Participating in the first part of the show were Mmes. Sid Gans, Allen Hofferber, George Stevens, and Miss Gerry Woods. A short story of an embarrassing moment in each of their lives was told by Bill Layden, master of ceremonies, who presented each with a gift memento of the embarrassing episode. Mrs. Stevens, wife of Torrance City Manager George Stevens, was placed in an easy chair on the stage and told to give orders to household chores to "George." The "George" in this case was none other than George Montgomery of movie fame who hastened to carry out her commands. Each of the four participants was given an electric coffee maker.

On the reunion quiz program of the show taking part were Mrs. Robert Stewart, Mrs. Albert Smith and Mrs. James Lees, club president. The voice to be identified was that of Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. Durwood Dunham, whom NBC had flown to California from her home in Bristol, Pa. The two sisters had not seen each other in five years, during which Mrs. Dunham had four children and Mrs. Smith two children. Also joining in this happy reunion was a brother, Jack Robbins and his

Valencia-Elswick Rites Are Read at Nativity on June 23

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Valencia, 1684 W. 215th St., are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Connie, to Cecil Howard Elswick, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thomas, 182 W. 232nd Place.

The wedding took place on June 23 at Nativity Catholic church at 11 a.m. with the Rev. Thomas Glynn officiating.

The bride wore a gown of white lace and tulle. A pearl tiara held her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Emma Valencia was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Cecelia Rooney, Joyce Heranzo, Margie Jaramillo, and Jo Gonzales. The maid of honor wore blue and the bridesmaids were in pink.

Gloria Garcia in white nylon was the flower girl. Leo Rios was the best man and ushers were Arthur Rooney, Charlie Valencia, Russell Johnson and Mike Kaill.

A reception was held at the YWCA and the couple spent a honeymoon at Idylwild and Las Vegas. They are residing in Torrance.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High school and the bridegroom was educated in Texas.
