Scout Troop 1368

Scouts of Troop 1368, the leadership of Mrs. Ruckle, held their court on Tuesday evening, 12th, at the Crenshaw. Many of the girls received awards for their scout achievements and special recognition went to Joan for her work with a Troop along with her Girl Scout duties. Joan received her 5-year pin.

Bobby Nix, a very active leader, was given her 10-year pin by Mrs. Ruckle and because of the Girl Scouts since being leading for Bobby and all the work she has done with the Troop, they presented her with a gift as a token of their appreciation.

A prize winning letter was written by Joyce Lewis to the Scout department on the subject "What Scouting Has Done For Me."

Scout Troop 1551

Members of Troop 1551 have had up their regular meeting for the summer. The girls entertained their parents at their last meeting. Cake, coffee and punch were served. The following members were present: Laura Beale, Robin Bingham, Cecelia Blahnik, Janene Brown, Judy Doss, Rita Ellingsworth, Janet Lemen, Mary Malloy, Jennie Pidenour, Susie Wentz, Claudia Yates and Joyce Zubovich.

Brownie Troop 486

Investiture ceremonies for Brownie Troop No. 486 were recently held at the YWCA. The Salute to the Flag was led by Cynthia Edmunds, and the girls invested were: Judith Brown, Cathleen Cleasby, Donna Cochran, Carolyn Florence, Deborah Fox, Judy Harlan, Carolyn Kilday, Helen McDonald, Teresa Nino, Patricia Parvis, Barbara Rabel, Teresa Ramos, Cathy Savage, Linda Scott, Nancy Smith, Linda Vang, and Cheryl Williams. Refreshments were served following the investiture, which was attended by relatives and friends of the girls.

The leaders of this troop are Mrs. Patsy Scott, Mrs. Frances Fox, and Mrs. Betty Cochran. Future activities planned by the troop are a birthday party, a trip to Marineland, Penny Pine, and attending Cinerama and Disneyland.

Troop 753

Scouts of Troop 753 currently are on a climbing expedition in the Sierras, with Mill Huber in charge of the hikers.

Carrying full field packs, the Scouts will trek about 65 miles from Chantry Flats up to Mt. Baden Powell (named after former international Scout leader), and then to Verdugo Pines. The group is scheduled to return July 7.

Boys making the trip include Roy Andicochea, Kenny McKenzie, Bill Capps, Dick Bush, Bill Pullen, George Corbett, Richard Wagner, Ralph Yarnell, Terry Willy, Dennis Kern, Barry Moschel, Fred Mackenzie, Maurice Dohmer, Ernest Shockley, Wade Freedman, Roy Dohmer Jr., Terry Miller, Gary Rudisill, Teddy Armstrong, Ron Davis, David Beck and David McVey.

Scout Troop 610

The Scout Mothers' Club of Troop 610 held June meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Green.

Mrs. Charles Garrison, chairman, conducted the business meeting, during which the summer activities for the various patrols were discussed and planned.

After the business meeting election of officers for the year 1956-57 was held. Those to take up their duties in various posts were as follows: Mrs. Donald Franklin, president; Mrs. Laurence Sargent, secretary; Mrs. Ivan Calton, transportation chairman; Mrs. Florence Turner, financial chairman; and Mrs. Lyle Fenn, publicity.
