Strip Rezoning Hearing Slated Tuesday, Aug. 7

Change of zone from industrial to residential in an area bounded by a line midway of 223rd St. and 224th St. and including all properties from Normandie Ave. to Western as far southward as Plaza Del Amo, will be considered at a public hearing scheduled Aug. 7 at Normandie playground, it was announced today by Councilman John S. Bibson.

The council president, who is the representative of that area in Los Angeles city government, said the Planning Commission would conduct the hearing as a result of a petition of property owners.

Petitions filed some weeks ago with the commission pointed out that all of the streets in the area were being improved with residential type paving at property owners expense and that heavy industrial use would jeopardize these roadways.

Additional home building, now impossible under present zoning, is expected to be started if the zone change is approved.

Joint Meeting
The meeting has been combined with the regular session of the Councilman's advisory committee and will start at 7:30 p.m., Thomas Murphy, committee chairman, said.

Residents of the area, headed by Mrs. Ralph Robertson, committee hostess, will serve refreshments, according to a report from Mrs. Harold T. Under, press chairman.

CHECK WRITING
Bank checks written in pencil are generally accepted but are not popular because figures can be easily erased. Checks dated on Sunday are usually valid.

Registration Set At Camino

General registration for classes at El Camino College will start Monday and continue through Sept. 5, Merl F. Sloan, director of student personnel, announced recently.

Enrollment of students who received counseling for their fall program on the campus last semester and of part-time students who attended classes at the college last spring is now in progress and will be completed tomorrow.

Prospective students planning to enroll for a full-time program of 10 or more units must make appointments for registration by calling at the Counseling Office of the college, Leo Christian, assistant director of student personnel, in charge of registration and records, stated.

Jack Hudson In Fantasy

Jack Hudson, resident director of ACCENT Theatre! and former drama teacher at Torrance High School, is currently appearing in the new Animal Ghost Town fantasy at Knott's Berry Farm. Hudson has been assigned a role as straight man to the comic frontier marshal and his educated animal actors.

The show was premiered before several hundred members of the press, radio, and TV industries last week and is now running seven performances a day, seven days a week.

Hudson came here two years ago from Kansas City, Mo., and has been active in formation and production of the ACCENT Theatre!

In addition to his ACCENT work, he has been active in other theatrical productions throughout the area.

Torrance Firm Gets Street Job

A Torrance firm, Warren-Southwest, Inc., was declared the successful bidder this week on two major street projects in Torrance, the paving of Post Ave. from Carson St. to Arlington and Carson St. from Plaza Del Amo to Arlington, and the widening and paving of Crenshaw Blvd. from Dominguez St. to Carson St.

The local firm won the Post-Carson paving contract with the low bid of $20,051.85. High bid was more than $23,000.

Warren-Southwest was awarded the Crenshaw improvement contract on its low bid of $50,776.62. Highest bid for this project exceeded $80,000.
