MRS. FRANK GEORGE BURTON, JR.

... Recites Vows

Boyd-Burton Nuptials Read At Latter Day Saints Church

Bishop Donald Weir conducted the eight o'clock marriage ceremony last Saturday evening, July 28, at the Church of Jesus Christ, Latter Day Saints, when Miss Shirley Elaine Boyd made her wedding promises to Frank George Burton Jr.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Boyd, 412 West 25th St., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burton, Sr., 25530 January Dr.

As the wedding guests gathered, Dorothy McDonald played appropriate nuptial music and accompanied Esther Howe as she sang "I Love You Truly," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Miss Bonnie Jean Ward, in a blue net gown and carrying pink carnations, was the honor attendant. The bridesmaids were Miss Jo Anne Snodgrass, Carla Babb, and Dianna Farish. They wore bouffant pink net gowns and carried colonial bouquets of pink carnations.

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father. She was lovely in her wedding gown of white lace and net, fashioned with a lace bodice and a skirt of three tiers of net. Her bridal veil cascaded from a tiara and she carried a white orchid encircled with white carnations.

Gerald Burton served as best man and ushers were Ronald Farish, Bruce Burton, and Ray Hansen.

After the wedding a reception was held in the church hall, where Charlotte Burton registered the guests. Following a short wedding trip, the newlyweds are at home on 252nd St., Harbor City.

The bride was graduated from Narbonne High School in June. Her bridegroom was a member of the Narbonne class of 1954. He then attended Brigham Young College in Utah and Harbor Junior College.

John Steinbaughs Hosts to Parents of 'Miss Universe'

Dinner guests Tuesday evening of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Steinbaugh, 1841 Espinosa Circle, Los Verdes, were the Rev. and Mrs. LaVerne Morris of Ottumwa, Iowa.

The Morris are the parents of Miss Carol Morris, Miss Universe of 1957.

The Steinbaughs and Morris are old friends from Oakland, Iowa. Miss Universe had such a busy day that she was unable to come for dinner but very soon will spend a week end here with the Steinbaugh's daughter, Ann. The Morris, who left this week for Ottumwa, had planned to bring Carol to Torrance Sunday to attend church with the Steinbaughs. Miss Universe had to attend a luncheon at the Ambassador, and plans were changed.

On Tuesday afternoon, the Morris were guests of Dr. Steinbaugh on a tour of SC campus where Mr. Steinbaugh is admissions administrator.

After the dinner here, the Steinbaughs accompanied the Morris back to the Ambassador where they had a visit with Carol, whom they had not seen since she was a small girl.

Carol and Miss Sweden, who are both under motion picture studio contracts, are residing at the Studio club.

Mary Ann Shearer's Troth To David Hagthorp Revealed

Of wide interest this morning is the announcement being made by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shearer, 2816 Gramercy of the engagement of their daughter, Mary Ann, to David Hagthorp, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hagthorp of Redondo Beach. The news was first disclosed at a dinner party attended by both families at the Shearer home Tuesday evening.

The wedding is scheduled for mid-December.

The bride-elect was graduated from Torrance High School in 1954. She was a Tartar Lady, member of the Tri-Hi-Y, Scholarship federation, historian of the Girls League, vice president of the GAA and won a GAA honor plaque.

She then attended El Camino College where she was a member of the Chi Theta sorority.

The bridegroom-to-be was graduated from Fremont High in Los Angeles and attended El Camino College. He is a member of Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity. At Fremont he was Knight Captain, student body vice president and All-City gymnastic champion. He won a two year Southern California aida-horse championship in gymnastics at El Camino.

He was an Ephesian in his high school class.
