

Social World

EDNA CLOYD, Editor

AUGUST 23 1956 TORRANCE HERALD Thirteen

ISLAND TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. H. Don Porter of 1017 Kornblum Ave., spent a very enjoyable four days of last week at Catalina Island. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Roland Petrat.

The group visited the island aboard the "Cimarron" belonging to the parents of Mr. Porter.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

A family patio barbecue at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sears of Post Ave. last Sunday evening, celebrated the birthday of Earl Clayton. With Mr. and Mrs. Sears were Mr. and Mrs. Clayton, Mrs. Phyllis Klink and two sons.

Pat Clere Is Now Mrs. A. Ouwendijk

Approximately 200 wedding guests gathered last Saturday afternoon, Aug. 18, at the Torrance First Baptist Church at 3 o'clock to witness the ceremony in which Miss Patricia Clere, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Clere, 1716 Iris Ave., became the bride of Arno Ouwendijk, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Ouwendijk, 3310 Eldorado.

A pink and white color theme was used in the choice of flowers decorating the altar, before which the Rev. C. Miles Northup stood to officiate at the rites.

Oscar Walton at the organ, played the wedding marches, and accompanied Mrs. Joan George who sang "I'll Walk Beside You," "O Perfect Love" and "Wedding Prayer."

Heading the bridal entourage were the bridesmaids Miss Juandell Muncy and Mrs. Dale Angel. They wore white lace gowns over pink taffeta and carried pink cascades of gladioli and feathered carnations.

Mrs. James Skenes served as matron of honor. Her gown was also of white lace over pink taffeta and she carried a shower of glamelias and feathered carnation.

Carolyn Jane Skenes and Djoeke Ouwendijk were the flower girls. Their dainty frocks were of pink organdy over taffeta and each wore a rosebud headband.

Robert Ouwendijk served his brother as best man and ushers were David Christensen and Dale Angel.

Fellowship Hall in the church was decorated in the bride's colors of pink and white for the reception that followed.

The couple are now on a honeymoon in San Francisco and through the Redwoods. They will establish a Torrance home upon their return.

The bride is a teacher in the Torrance Unified School District and Mr. Ouwendijk is in the construction business in Torrance.

MISS MARILYN REVELL
... Princess of Rancho San Antonio

Marilyn Revell Is Queen Candidate

Selection of Miss Marilyn Revell as the "Reigning Princess of Rancho San Antonio," Boys Town of the West, has been announced by Bert Gagnon, chairman of the Rancho San Antonio Queen contest. Marilyn, the candidate for Los Crusados Council of the Knights of Columbus, was selected from a field of 56 candidates, representing member councils of the Southern California Chapter of the Knights of Columbus.

Miss Revell daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Revell, 1121 W. 204th St., is a June graduate of Marymount High School in Palos Verdes. Her father, is president of Cal-Metal corporation, a local industry.

Los Crusados Council, sponsor of Miss Revell, is currently leading the Southern California Chapter on admission ticket sales to the gala Rancho San Antonio barbecue to be held Sunday, Sept. 16, at the "Boys Town of the West" in Chatsworth. Pete O'Brien, chairman of Los Crusados Council ticket sales, urged all members to continue their enthusiastic support of their princess.

Grand Knight Dick Burch commended the residents of Torrance and the South Bay, who by their generous and charitable participation in the ticket sale program, have made possible the enlargement of the home for wayward boys;

MRS. WAYNE KYLLINGSTAD
... Married Saturday

THOMSEN FAMILY

Mrs. Delbert Thomsen and Kathy and Tommy, arrived home Sunday evening from a week's vacation in Catalina, where they were the guests of Mrs. John Melville and family, who are spending the summer at their island home. The week before, Mrs. Thomsen and children, had spent several days at Little Island, with Mrs. Laura Folker and Sharon and Andrea, who are vacationing at Balboa.

Mary Jean Skinner Weds Rev. Kyllingstad Aug. 18

A lovely wedding was the culmination of a romance which began when the bridegroom, the Rev. Wayne E. Kyllingstad was performing ministerial duties at the bride's church, Calvary Baptist in Gardena. The Rev. Kyllingstad was married to Miss Mary Jean Skinner last Saturday afternoon, Aug. 18, at 4 p.m.

Bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Kyllingstad of 1685 W. 252 St., Harbor City, and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Skinner of Gardena.

The Rev. H. Earl Kiester standing before the altar flanked with baskets of white gladioli and lighted by branch candelabra, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

While guests were being seated by ushers E. Le Boyer, G. Thomas Colby, Richard Westfall and Allan Young, Mrs. Charlie Rees played a program of bridal selections including "Together," "Because" and "Father Bless This Holy Union."

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a gown of Alencon lace over candlelight satin fashioned with a long train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was held by a Juliet cap trimmed with rhinestones. She wore a strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom, and carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis encircling an orchid.

Preceding her to the altar were her attendants Mrs. Katherine Posten, sister of the bride, who, as matron of honor, wore a princess styled gown of blue chormespun taffeta and carried yellow roses and blue delphinium; Lorna Randolph and Delores Kyllingstad as bridesmaids wore yellow chormespun taffeta gowns in the princess style and carried yellow rose buds mixed with blue delphinium. Kathie Skinner, niece of the bride, in a pink chormespun taffeta gown served as flower girl.

Lawrence Kyllingstad attended the bridegroom as best man and carrying the rings to the altar was Martin Posten, nephew of the bride.

A reception followed in the church hall where Jennifer Bragg and JoAnn Nelson registered guests. They also served as candlelighters before the wedding. Out-of-town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Colby of Berkeley, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson; Mrs. J. Hastings; Mrs. Ellen Nelson, San Diego, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Skinner of Sacramento.

The bride who is a member of Job's Daughters, is a graduate of Fremont, High School and El Camino Junior College. Her bridegroom is a graduate of Narbonne High School, Los Angeles City College and California Seminary.

June Rambo Becomes Mrs. Kasko In Service at Methodist Church

Masses of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and stock in four large white baskets interspersed with standards holding white candles decorated the chancel of the First Methodist church last Saturday evening at 7:30 for the wedding of Miss Diris June Rambo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jiles W. Rambo, 2401 Apple Ave., and Joseph Kasko, Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kasko, 2413 Apple Ave.

Misses Ellen Koehn and Beverly Harrington, wearing yellow chiffon gowns and yellow rosebuds corsages, lighted the candles as Mrs. Janet Vigil, organist, played nuptial music and accompanied Earle Peterson who sang "The Lord's Prayer," "Because," and "I Love Thee."

To the strains of the wedding march, the bridesmaids entered the church. They were Miss Janie Moffatt, Miss Frances Cannon, and Kay Hutchinson, junior bridesmaid. Mrs. Jack Rambo was the matron of honor.

All of the bridal attendants were in pale blue chiffon gowns and each wore a heart-shaped blue hat to match her gown and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow rosebuds.

Petite Cindy June Mitchell was the flower girl. Her frock was of yellow nylon with bouffant skirt of tiers of ruffles over taffeta. A shirred lace-edged bertha collar was another detail of the dress. Cindy carried a basket of yellow rose petals which she dropped in the path of the bride and her father.

Then came the lovely bride in her wedding gown, a Maurer original of handclipped imported lace over taffeta. The fitted lace bodice had long sleeves and a neckline accented with the handclipped lace. Wide panels of lace were inserted in the bouffant skirt which fell into a chapel train.

The bridal veil of illusion cascaded from a crown of sequins and pearls and the bridal bouquet was of white rosebuds, carnations and stephanotis in a colonial design.

The rings for the double ceremony were brought to the altar by young Bobby Taylor. Carl Stimach served as best man and ushers were Jack Rambo, Tom Smith and Roy Stiles.

The Rev. John Taylor conducted the marriage ceremony.

A reception followed in the church hall where the bride's table was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Walter Houdasht served the cake and Mrs. James Stiles poured punch. Mrs. Edna Moffatt was in charge of the guest book.

The couple are now spending a two weeks honeymoon in northern California at the Lake Elizabeth Ranch Club.

The bride was graduated in 1953 from Torrance High School where she was a lifetime member of scholarship society. She received her degree

Armstrongs, Grandsons Tour Europe

Arriving in London, England, Monday, were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Armstrong, 812 Via Conejo, Palos Verdes, and their twin 12-year-old grandsons, E. B. and Peter Hall of Los Angeles.

The Armstrongs and the two boys left here by plane on Aug. 5, for Montreal, where they boarded the Empress Scotland. They will tour the British Isles and from there will go to the continent.

The travelers are anticipating an exciting stay in Germany, where they will be the guests of Roland Mohrmann, in Bielliseld, Germany. Roland made his home here with the Armstrongs while an exchange student under the American Field Service Plan. Roland has outlined their tour of Germany.

The trip back to the states will be by plane and they will arrive home Oct. 5.

VISIT GRANDPARENTS

Mrs. John McVey and children of 920 Kornblum Ave., visited with both grandparents in San Diego, while their husband and father, was at Camp Roberts with the engineering corp of the Army Reserve.

Grandparents in San Diego, are Capt. and Mrs. W. L. Irvine and Col. and Mrs. John M. McVey.

MRS. ARNO OUWENDIJK
... Lovely Bride

MRS. JOSEPH KASKO, JR.
... On Honeymoon

(Portrait by Seaman)

MRS. THOMAS S. JOHNSTON
... Recites Vows

Robert Stadio