

Jolene West-S. A. Clarke Wed In Beautiful Home Ceremony

Miss Jolene West became the bride of Stuart Andrew Clarke, Saturday morning in a charming double-ring ceremony performed in her home by Bishop Donald Weir of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

The lovely bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton W. West of 25819 Eshelman St., Lomita. Her bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Clarke.

Witnessing the intimate ceremony were members of the family, relatives and close friends.

The bridal gown, fashioned from lace, satin and net, featured a flaring, balarina length skirt and bolero. The pearl held fingertip veil complemented the Peter Pan collar and fitted sleeves of the bolero.

The bride's bouquet was a white orchid blending with carnations and stephanotis.

Melceena Holstrom, matron of honor, and Diane Holstrom, flower girl, wore matching gowns of lace over lavender satin.

Richard Clarke stood as best man for the couple.

Estelle Ashby, accompanied by Alta Gaines sang "Love Never Changes" and "Walk Hand in Hand With Me."

The bride's book was unique in that it played "Hear Comes the Bride" while guests signed their names.

The reception was held in the garden of the Holstrom residence at 22926 Meyler Ave., Torrance, where many of the couple's friends were gathered.

The refreshment table was covered with white taffeta and lace, the perfect setting for the two large silver candelabra and silver punch bowls which created a stunning conversation piece. The cake was decorated with lavender icing and surrounded with gardenias. The ceramic bride and groom topped the cake were made by the bride's mother.

On each plate served to the guests was a tiny scroll tied with lavender ribbons saying "thank you" in verse. "Jolene and Stuart" was etched on the napkins in silver. A delicious green punch with floating banana slices and candies

Joan Bryant Repeats Vows With Tad D. Kelly, Aug. 11

Shades of pink, ranging from pale pink to purple in the bouffant gowns of the bridal attendants provided a beautiful color tone to the wedding of Miss Joan Bryant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bryant, 127 E. 232 Pl., Wilmington, and Tad DeWitt Kelley, son of Mrs. Hazel Kelley of Gardena, on Aug. 11.

The bride walked to the altar on the arm of her father. She was lovely in her wedding gown of white satin and tulle. The satin bodice had a bateau neckline accented with pearls and medallions. The tiny pearls and lace ornamented the long sleeves and the full skirt of tulle decorated with lace medallions fell into a chapel train. A pearl tiara held the fingertip veil and she carried a shower bouquet of white orchids and bouvardia.

Miss Jeanene Ambler was the maid of honor, wearing purple taffeta and carrying pink elf roses. Bridesmaids were Misses Barbara Stangeland, Pat Hodges, Rochelle Weinstock and Jean Enright. Their gowns were in graduating shades of pink and they carried bouquets of pink carnations.

Immediately ahead of the bride was little Debra Ann Hurst wearing a floor length pink net over taffeta gown. She dropped petals in the path of the bride. Master Greg Smith was the ring bearer.

Dick Enright served as best man and ushers were Anthony Albanese, Robert Stangeland, Robert Isaacson, Dennis Stangeland.

Dr. T. C. Silverthorn officiated at the wedding as Mrs. W. R. Jenkins played the nuptial music.

Miss Charmen Gore sang "Walk Hand in Hand," "My Devotion" and "The Lord's Prayer."

After the wedding a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Judy Burgen registered the guests.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon in Palm Springs.

shaped as bridal slippers and hearts were set out. Silver bells and streamers formed the background for the couple as they greeted their guests.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School and is active in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. She is employed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Los Angeles.

The bridegroom is a graduate of the University of California and is an accountant for Arthur Anderson and Co. of Los Angeles.

The couple departed for their three week honeymoon to be spent in Washington and Canada.

After their return they will make their home in Santa Monica.

KESSON FAMILY
Mr. and Mrs. John Kesson of 2015 182 St., entertained Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Forsythe with a patio barbecue Thursday evening. The Kessons motored to Escondido recently to visit Mr. and Mrs. Warren Johnston, former long time residents of Torrance.

Grubb Family Tours U.S.A.

The wonders and beauties of the USA were thoroughly enjoyed by two natives of Torrance, who with their two children, returned last Sunday, from a seven weeks tour of the United States.

They are Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Grubb and Linda and Jerry of 1625 Elm. Mr. Grubb came to Torrance when he was one year old and Mrs. Grubb, the former Mariann Spehgeher, was born and reared here. This was her first trip out of the state.

The family drove to San Antonio where they visited the Alamo, then into historic New Orleans and from there to Tampa and St. Petersburg, Fla. After the sites in Florida they turned north through the Smoky Mountains of North Carolina, through South Carolina and on to Washington, D. C. They were also in the state of Virginia and then to Pennsylvania, where they visited with friends.

New York City was their next stop and on to Niagara Falls. Other stops were Detroit and Kalamazoo, Mich., and several days on an island in northern Wisconsin. They also visited on a farm in Michigan and then traveled to the lakes in Minnesota.

The foursome traveled through Montana and to Yellowstone Park, then to Idaho and to Salt Lake City, Utah. Back to California, they spent some time in Sacramento, San Francisco and visited with friends at Bass Lake before returning to Torrance.

Bridal Shower

Mrs. Emily Young and daughter, Cindy, entertained with a miscellaneous shower on Tuesday evening of last week at their home 1820 Middlebrook Rd., honoring Mrs. Arno Ouwendijk, the former Patricia Clere, whose wedding took place last Saturday.

Games were played followed by refreshments served from a lace covered table centered with pink carnations and candles.

Attending the party were Mmes. Peggy Maynard, Charles Myers, Floy Boland, E. C. Clere and Miss Thelma Reid.

Sending gifts, but unable to attend, were Mmes. C. E. Wright and C. C. Hendrex.

Thomas Johnston and Bride Establish Hawthorne Home

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Johnston are now at home at 675 E. 126th St. in Hawthorne following their marriage, July 21, at 8 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Inglewood.

Mrs. Johnston is the former Charlotte C. Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Monte Craig, 10718 Condon Ave. Inglewood and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Johnston, 2760 Gramercy Pl., Torrance.

Masses of white gladioli and pink carnations decorated the chancel of the church where Dr. A. G. Rice stood to officiate at the wedding. Candles were lighted prior to the ceremony by Misses Bonnie Johnston and Joanne Ullers.

For her wedding, the bride wore a colonial gown of lace and net detailed with a long torso with a lace overskirt falling into a lace and ruffle train. Her short illusion veil was held by a crushed nylon bandeau and she carried a colonial bouquet of orchids and white carnations.

Mrs. Robert Craig of Riverside was the matron of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Montie Craig, Loretta Johnston, Betty Jo Kavanaugh and Margaret Tate. They wore waltz length colonial gowns of blue crystallette.

Kenneth Johnston served his brother as best man and ushers were William Crawford, Robert Craig, James Johnston, Art Sues, Larry Roy and Frank Yancy.

A reception was held in the Moose Hall in Inglewood after which a honeymoon was spent in Las Vegas.

The new Mrs. Johnston was graduated from Morningside High school, and El Camino College where she was a member of Gamma Phi Delta sorority.
