Cubs Hold Meeting At Park; Help Still Coming for Butch

By ALICE PALCZEWSKI DA 6-0788
Cub Scout Pack 255C, sponsored by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, combined its monthly meeting with a picnic at Peck Park. After an exciting game of baseball with their sons, the fathers met with their wives and Cubmaster Glenn Scrivner in a parents' meeting. A day's outing in the San Gabriel Mountains and a visit to attend Cinerama are planned for future activity. The evening ended with a watermelon bust. Cubs participating were Eddie Hanson, David Scrivner, Emmette Foster, Bradley and Robby Geurin, Ray Chamberlain, Butch and Michael Bradshaw, Randy Stowe, Michael Matlock, Ronald Acker, Dean and Gary Jensen, and Ricky Scott. Awards presented during the evening went to Dean Jensen who received his Lions Badge, and Emmette Foster, Gold Arrow. Den Mother Betty Matlock and son, Michael, received their one year pins.

Little "Butch" Hudgins, who lost his leg in a recent auto tragedy, has had an artificial limb won for him by Roger Wright who appeared on King for a Day. Jack Bailey talked direct with "Butch" at the Harbor General Hospital and told him of the new bicycle that was awaiting him. Butch has received support from people in the entire harbor area. Perhaps the most touching helping hand came from a news-carrier. The paper boy paid the office for his papers and deposited the balance of his pay in the container with Butch's picture on it. He walked out of the office without a word to any one.

Lucille and Rolph Tanner will be moving to Whittier some time before school starts. Rolph, who has taught school in Long Beach has been transferred to Whittier. Mrs. Tanner is thrilled at the prospect of moving into their new home.

The Bob Bechtolds, of 260th St., motored to St. George, Utah, to visit Bessie Fish. From there they went to Richfield where they attended the county fair with other friends. Their daughter, Jeannine, took an active part in the fair, and has stayed on in Richfield until school starts. The route home brought the Bechtolds through Las Vegas where they visited more friends. Nancy Bechtold became ill, so the parents were unable to take in the night spots. The Bechtold boy, Gary, is in Placerville with his grandmother, Mrs. Ettie Prince, and cousin, Kenny Nilsson. Gary will remain there until school starts.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hannson are the proud parents of their fourth baby. Terry Lynn weighed in at 7 lbs. 10 1/2 oz. at the San Pedro Hospital on Aug. 28. The Hannsons now have two boys and two girls. Friends of the Hannsons, the Robert Craigs, also had a new arrival. Their's was a boy, and brought their family to two boys and two girls.

Kathy Bechtold attended a slumber party at Karen Ray's in Wilmington on Fries Ave. Kathy took part in the wiener roast. Ray told pioneer stories, and the friends, after the last story was told, slept in sleeping bags on the living room floor.

Linda Weirich, of 26247 President Ave., celebrated her ninth birthday recently. Her birthday cake proclaimed the day in blue icing and matching blue flowers on a pink back-
