

CHIEF PANCAKE CHEF... President Joe M. Doss of the Kiwanis Club is assisted by Virginia Stoddard, president of the Volunteers for Children, as they enact the role they will play Saturday at the Kiwanis Pancake Breakfast to be served at the Civic Auditorium. The project is being held to raise funds to carry on assistance to underprivileged Torrance children.

Aunt Jemima To Help Serve Breakfast Here

A new feature will be added to the Kiwanis Pancake Breakfast this year when the Torrance Club serves breakfast with the aid of a nationally known figure, Aunt Jemima. The nationwide appearances, both in person and on television, have always brought delight to audiences, young and old. Torrance area residents are being invited by the club to join the Kiwanis Club for their pancake breakfast Saturday morning and meet Aunt Jemima.

This year's breakfast is the annual fund raising activity of the Torrance Kiwanis Club, and the proceeds will go to aid local Boy Scout Troops, Cub Packs, Little League and Babe Ruth baseball, Torrance Dental Health Clinic, learn-to-swim program, and many cases of individual assistance.

Newest project to be aided is the Volunteers for Children group working at the Harbor General Hospital in giving recreation and comfort to con-means of aiding children of Torrance, according to President Joe M. Doss.

Tickets will be available from Kiwanians on the street corners all day tomorrow, from local merchants and at the HERALD office, 1619 Gramercy Ave.
