University Women Give Annual Friendship Tea

The annual Friendship Tea of the American Association of University Women, San Pedro Branch, was held Sunday at the Y. W. C. A. Officers present, Mrs. Paul Truesdell, president, Mrs. Joseph Ferderberer, membership chairman, and Edith Fisher, fellowship chairman, acted as hostesses. Tea was poured during the afternoon by former presidents Miss Alice Hawkins, Mrs. W. Madison Taylor, Miss Thelma Barnes, Mrs. J. Ross Wallace, Miss Helen Pressey, Miss Mary Jane O'Rourke, Mrs. Bruce Rhoades, Mrs. Harold W. Clayton, and Mrs. Oscar A. Pearson. On the table was the group's beautiful new lace cloth and silver service. The table decorations by Mrs. O. R. C. Grow were lovely. They consisted of lavender candles and chrysanthemums and purple grapes and plums. The group held a dinner meeting at the Assistance League in San Pedro last evening. Husbands and friends were special guests. Dr. Wallace Moore gave an interesting and informative talk on "Russian Merry Go Round." Dr. Moore is chairman of education and psychology at Long Beach State College and has just returned from the USSR.
