STROLLIN' THROUGH SOUTHWEST PARK

Ditches Dig the Rhythm of Rock And Roll, Waltz Off With Prize

By RUTH FOSTER
 FR 9-5508

Ben and Peggy Ditch are brother and sister. They must get along very nicely, for their dancing as a couple won them first place at the Teen Age Dance last Friday night at Carl Steele School. More than 100 young people and their chaperones (who so generously give of their time), were present to applaud the couple's excellence. A shirt was presented to the custodian for always having the premises open on time. The teenagers have asked that all who come to the dances be at least seventh graders.

That same night there were adults under the spell of Terpsichore, goddess of the dance. Mr. and Mrs. William Freeman enjoyed an evening at the Aragon Ballroom.

Full and football games go together. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Barackman and friends agree with this, having attended the SC-Oregon game a few nights past. They said the game was nothing to cheer about but the hamburgers were top rate. More diversion is on the Barackman schedule for this week-end when Earl matches his skill with the fish in the Sierras.

Excitement ran up and down our block Tuesday morning, Oct. 2, clad in pink booties and calling happily, "The Jameses have their baby!" This one and that hurried their genuine congratulations at the beaming papa, J. R. James, as he prepared to hand out cigars stating proudly, "It's a girl!" The mother, Ariene, was resting and pondering the joy of it all at Bay Cities General Hospital while "big brother" to the precious newcomer stood unusually tall, waiting for his bus. He was quiet and dignified, but, knowing children, one can assume he fairly exploded when he broke the big news to his pals on their way to another day at school. But what a special day. Diana Rene had finally arrived!

More "bundles from heaven" have been distributed in Southwest Park. You might be seeing signs of one of them at 19521 Flavian, where Geoffrey John DeBoer joined his happy parents the John DeBoer's and brother, Gregory, just 20 months himself. Geoffrey was born the 28th of September.

The Keller Lottermosers have added a bassinet to their household furnishings at 19422 Donora. It accommodates young Master Gregory who arrived Sept. 21. He is the couple's third son.

Another note of interest on Flavian concerns new neighbors. The Immekers have just moved in and enrolled their three children in Carl Steele School.

The Don Perry's usually humming household was very still for a spell last weekend when the family went to a company picnic. That's the best kind of picnic. We went to one in the summer and took nothing but our children and their respective appetites. (Always particularly puny at picnics, agreed?)

Remember the big build-up we gave the Hawkins' trip to Mt. Whitney last week? We'd feel less that honest if we did not tell you how it came out. They got half way up the trail and found that their beloved dog would not be allowed to accompany them. Some rule that had not been informed of made it necessary for them to return home. Their attitude toward park officials might be "Hike me 'hike' my dog."

Mrs. Doe Thompson and children, Jimmy and Nancy, were baptized into the Church of the Latter Day Saints last Saturday evening. They attend services in Redondo Beach. We are sure this was an inspiring experience for all of them.

Tartar Teen Talk

By BERTA ROGAN, FR 5-6993

There was a slumber party given last Friday night after the Ventura game at the home of Rosemary Hill. As usually happens at slumber parties, no one got much sleep, especially a few people who didn't get in until much before four. Those attending were Becky Candler, Sharon Blakesley, Bonnie Fletcher, Gay Maupin, Toni Grose, Barbara Balow, Berta Rogan, Judy Elston, Claudia Smith, Marie Turner, Judy Nance, Pat Willis, Cynthia Beadle and Rosemary Hill. Everyone had a lot of fun and Bonnie had everybody singing "Happy Birthday" to her.

Tomorrow night the Tartar football team will play its first league game against Samohi. It ought to be a terrific game so get your ticket today and come on out to the game and help beat Santa Monica.

The dances after the football games are really as much fun as the games. There will be three more games and there will probably be dances after each of them, so be sure to come and join the fun.

The Class of '57 now has its senior play under way — although I don't know the cast as yet, I hear the name of it is "June Mad."

An after-game party was given for the "B" team at Claudia Smith's house last Thursday night. The "B" team celebrated its victory of 48-0 over Canoga Park. Most of the "B" team was there, some of the varsity, and the rest junior and sophomore girls. A few freshmen and seniors. Everyone had a wonderful time dancing, eating donuts, and drinking apple cider. Coach Dana also came to the party.

Say, Tartars, how about joining in a Clean Campus Campaign? I don't know whether you've noticed or not, but quite a few people have mentioned the fact to me. The best way to keep the campus clean is for everybody to put their own papers in the nearest trash can.
