Las Vecinas' Annual "Pancake Breakfast"

There's a combination of shouting and whispering among the housewives of Hollywood Riviera and Seaside these days.

They're shouting about the Las Vecinas Benefit Pancake Breakfast, which will be held at El Retiro Park, on Sunday, Oct. 21, between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. They're whispering about the mysterious unique batter beater in which the ingredients for the pancakes will be mixed.

Shouting, too, about the wonderful bargains to be had at the country store. Take along your grocery list, there'll be canned goods, crackers, cookies, cake mixes, salad dressings, soaps, detergents, and so forth, all at low, low prices.

This is the fifth annual breakfast put on by Las Vecinas. It is a friendly, family affair. You may have your breakfast, which consists of orange juice, pancakes, sausages, coffee and milk, before or after church. If you're new in the area you won't remain strangers long, club members promise.

There'll also be a fish pond for the kiddies, a craft booth with aprons, woven articles, ceramics, and such, for Christmas lists, and the ever-popular white elephant booth.

REMEMBER THE DATE—OCT. 21—EL RETIRO PARK.

Remember, too, that on the day preceding the breakfast, on Saturday the 20th Las Vecinas is holding a benefit bake sale, cakes, pies, and cookies from the kitchens of the best cooks in town. The sale will be held in front of the market, 1310 Pacific Coast Hwy. from early morning until the supply is exhausted.
