

Lutherans Plan Fifth Birthday Rites Sunday

A "Fall Festival of Music" will be presented at St. Matthew Lutheran Church next Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m., according to announcement of the pastor, the Rev. E. M. Passow.

The program will feature organ, choir and instrumental music.

Guest organist for the occasion will be Mrs. Frieda Schardt, of Grand Junction, Colo., who will play the following numbers: "Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring," and "Toccata and Fugue in D Minor" both by Bach, and "Meditation" by Sturges.

In her second group she will present "Suite Gothique" by Pellman, consisting of the "Choral, Priere A. Notre Dame, and Toccata." As a final number she has chosen "Nocturne Opus 9—No. 2" by Ferrata.

The choir will render several groups including, "The Lord is in His Holy Temple," Brooks; "O Saviour, Hear Me," arranged by Riegger; "A Mighty Fortress is Our God," arranged by Monson; "The Lord Bless You and Keep You," by Lutkin.

Eugene Glumace is director of St. Matthew choir, and Mrs. Kathleen Kail is accompanist. Glumace also will furnish a violin obligato to one of the numbers.

The public is invited.

Mission at Nativity in Second Week

The second and final week of Nativity Catholic Church Mission will begin on Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m. and is for men and teenage boys. This mission is being given by Father Roland Maher and Father Keith Schiltz, Passionist missionaries, at 1447 Engracia Ave.

Services are at 7:30 p.m. each evening; masses are at 6, 7:30 and 8:45 a.m. daily, with short instructions after the 6 and 8:45 masses. Sunday masses are at 6, 7, 8, 9, 10:15, 11:15 and 12:15.

The object of the Mission is "to give knowledge of salvation to His people unto the remission of their sins."

Non-Catholic men and boys are invited to attend this Mission.

Christian Science Talk Slated Friday

How understanding of man's problems with God solves problems of everyday living will be the topic of a free, public lecture on Christian Science to be given here tomorrow night by W. Norman Cooper of Los Angeles.

Cooper, a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship, will speak in the Dapplegray Public School Auditorium under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Palos Verdes Estates. His subject will be "Man's Sonship with God Revealed Through Christian Science."

A native of Winnipeg, Canada, Cooper served in the United States Army Air Corps during World War II. Since that time, he has devoted his full time to the public practice of Christian Science healing. He became an authorized teacher of Christian Science in 1952.

'Martin Luther' Showing Set at E and R Church

The movie, "Martin Luther," will be shown Sunday night at 7 at the Seaside Community Evangelical and Reformed Church, 230th and Ocean Ave.

Produced professionally, the film has been shown at movie houses throughout the area. There will be no admission charge and the public is invited.

Mormons to Hold Dinner On Saturday

The Gardena Ward and Redondo Stake of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints will hold its annual pioneer chuck wagon barbecue this Saturday night, according to Fay X. Bybee, building fund chairman.

Venison and beef will be pit barbecued for the affair which will be held Saturday, from 5:30 until 9 p.m. on the church lot at 2100 W. 174th St. (Artesia Blvd.).

Local church members are completing arrangements for this activity which will include a western amateur show, western TV entertainers, and pony rides for the kids.

There will be plenty of serving lines and entertainment, Bybee said.

Proceeds from this increasingly popular evening will go to the building fund. Tickets may be purchased at the dinner. The public is invited.

Dr. Barnum To Speak on 'Never Alone'

Dr. Earl D. Barnum, minister of the Church of Religious Science at Ruby and Catalina Sts., Redondo Beach, has announced that his subject for next Sunday will be "You Are Never Alone."

Sunday services of the church and the Metateens will be held concurrently at 11 a.m. Children's Church services will begin seven minutes before 1 a.m.

A 15-minute meditation period precedes the church services, with organ music by the church organist, Jean Rhodes.

A nursery for infants and the younger children, under the supervision of a registered nurse, is available.

The Inspiration Hour is held on Wednesday at 1 p.m. in the classroom at 503 S. Catalina Ave., Redondo Beach. This coming Wednesday, discussion will be on the subject "Forgive Yourself, Too."

CROSS-MOVING SLATED IN LAYMEN'S RITES

Laymen's Sunday will be observed at First Methodist Church, 1551 El Prado, on Sunday.

The morning worship services will be conducted by Martin Jack, president of Methodist Men's Club; Richard Brown Jr., chairman of the official board; Robert Mason, Church School superintendent, and Frank Fisher Sr., lay leader.

A special feature of the observance will be the "Cross-Moving," symbolizing the beginning of the remodeling of the main church building. The cross which has been at the top of the tower will be moved to the gable of the present sanctuary.

The tower is to be removed during the remodeling, since the front of the existing building will be changed from the Spanish style to contemporary architecture. This is an appropriate ceremony for Laymen's Sunday, since much of the remodeling will be done by volunteer labor of the laymen. The cross-moving ceremony will take place at 10 a.m.

Methodist Ladies Plan Yule Bazaar

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Walteria Community Methodist Church will hold its fifth annual bazaar on Saturday, Nov. 12, from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.

A turkey dinner, by advance reservation only, will be served between the hours of 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m., during which time the bazaar will close.

According to Mrs. Robert Allison, bazaar chairman, many novel and unique items will be sold. The theme for this year's bazaar will be "Santa's Village."

The Pixieland and Santa's Sack booths will sell toys and grab bag packages under the chairmanship of Mrs. Bill Bailey. The Candy Cane Lane booth will have homemade pastries, candies, and homemade mince meat made from a secret recipe from the family of Mrs. Herbert Pemble, chairman.

The Christmas Surprises booth will be filled with a variety of novelties and surprises for the Christmas shopper, according to Mrs. Kenneth Peerson, chairman. The Mmes. Alward Fuller and Edna Cunningham, co-chairmen of the Yulidde Gaieties booth, promise an assortment of aprons of every description and make.

The turkey dinner will be prepared by Mmes. William Taylor, Bill Williams, William Cunningham, Charles Beck and Mrs. Mary Kifer.

Church of God Slates Pageant Again This Year

The South Bay Church of God is making plans for the second annual Christmas Pageant on the church lawn at 17661 Yukon Ave. The presentation will be made twice nightly from Dec. 17 through 24 at 7 and 8 p.m.

This year a new opening scene will be added to the story of Christ's birth.

Plans are now being laid to make this pageant a part of the Christmas season every year. Souvenir programs will be distributed.

Church Will Observe 'Bring Friends Day'

"Bring Your Friends Day" will be observed at the Church of God, 2230 Cabrillo Ave., next Sunday morning, according to the Rev. George Broome, pastor.

The special observance is part of a Sunday school contest at the church. The Rev. Marlin Steenburgh is conducting a youth mission at the church through next week.

Rev. Broome's sermon topic this Sunday will be "Christ on Trial."

Church Ladies Plan Meet in Long Beach

The fall rally of the Harbor zone of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, will be held at Grace Lutheran Church, Long Beach, on Oct. 19.

Women of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church of Harbor City are expected to attend and to represent their church at this gathering.

Guest speaker at the morning session will be the Rev. Linwood Davis, missionary from Japan.

Mrs. M. Huffman, zone president, will preside over the business session and election of new officers. Mrs. Huffman is a member of Christ Lutheran Church, San Pedro.

Delegates attending who will represent St. Matthew Lutheran Church, Harbor City, will be Mrs. Norman Friedrichs, Guild president; Mrs. Hilda Thomure, Chancel Guild chairman; and Mrs. Eldon F. Wright, publicity chairman.

The zone nominating committee, is replacing Mrs. Minnie Lee Shanks, contract chairman, who is vacationing.

Lomita Missionary Church Has Sunday School Drive

"Building With the Bible in the Sunday School" is the theme for the Sunday School Advance now in progress at the Lomita Missionary Church. The Advance began Oct. 14 and will close Nov. 18.

It is a nation-wide Sunday School emphasis including all churches of the Missionary Church Assn. in the United States.

The Lomita church is emphasizing Bible reading and memorization as well as an organized program to reach absentees and Sunday School prospects. Already there has been a healthy gain in Sunday School attendance. Vernon Rose, Sunday School superintendent, is spearheading the Advance in the local church.

The Men's Fellowship of the Lomita Missionary Church is observing "Ladies' Night" this Friday evening. They are inviting their wives to a special dinner to be held at Gonzalez' restaurant, Wilmington.

The dinner at 7 will be followed by a program at which Rev. and Mrs. Eldon Austerman, missionaries to Haiti, will be the speakers. Mrs. Barbara Barrett will provide instrumental music for the evening on the vibraphone.

Ronald Ferguson, Men's Fellowship president, will be in charge.
