

They are Talking About --- That New Olympic Cut and Ballerina Flare

(Herald Photo)

BUT HOW DO YOU LIKE MY HAIRDO? ... says Sheri Artuso, 11-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Artuso, 864 Calle de Arboles. Sheri, born Nov. 5, 1955, at St. Mary's hospital in Long Beach, created much chatter among nurses and doctors as she snoozed away in her incubator sporting a mass of shoulder length brunette hair with lots of natural curl. And now at 11 months, the comb and brush are big items with Sheri as she tries to copy the pony tail and other styles worn by her 17-year-old sister, Patricia. The new Olympic cut is being seriously considered for Sheri's curly hair. Her 5-year-old brother Alfred thinks it would be tops. The children's father is principal at Walteria Elementary school.

(Herald Photo)

(Herald Photo)

MR. MRS. GEORGE SCHNEIDER
... Complete 50 Happy Years

Mr., Mrs. George Schneider Mark Golden Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Schneider of Yucaipa, who resided at 14800 Cerise until three years ago, were complimented at an open house at the home of their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schneider, 17314 Elgar, Wednesday evening in celebration of their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

The couple were married in 1906 at the Methodist Church in East St. Louis, Mo., by the Rev. Jackson. They came to California 11 years ago and both have been active in church and welfare work.

Of their six children, three are living. They are Edward of 17314 Elgar Ave.; Stuart Lee, 15320 Patronella Ave., Gardena, and a daughter, Mrs. Edwin Larson of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Schneider have 10 grandchildren.

A large number of former neighbors and friends called to extend good wishes to the couple who were visiting their sons here. A beautiful white and gold wedding cake centered the dining table. The cake, decorated by Mrs. Irene Stokes, held wedding bells and roses on the top and gold leaves decorated the sides of the cake.

During the evening, motion pictures of the party were made by the couple's son, Stuart Lee. Assisting in extending hospitality was Mrs. Dorothy Hulsey.

LEAVE FOR NORTH

Mr. and Mrs. Austin M. Woodward and two daughters, Catherine and Martha, 208 Via Mesa Grande left Wednesday for Marin County. Mr. Woodward is associated with the Coro Foundation and is on a temporary assignment in San Francisco. He will be returning periodically in connection with his work.

MEXICO VACATION

Ben Haggott and daughter, Miss Susan Haggott, 23250 Robert Rd., have returned from a three weeks vacation spent in Mexico City. They were guests at the Hotel Alifer and from there enjoyed trips to Taxco and Cuernavaca.

Beau Jardin Club to Hear Lecture on Holiday Decor

Mrs. Merrill Grow, lecturer, writer, and instructor will speak at the Beau Jardin Club Oct. 24 at the home of Mrs. Phillip Rice, 22515 Warmside Ave.

Mrs. Grow's lecture entitled "Something From Nothing," will be on the topic of holiday arrangements and will contain wonderful ideas on decorations and gift wrapping for Halloween, Thanksgiving and Christmas. Her great artistic ability, coupled with originality, and charming presentation make her an outstanding speaker.

Mrs. Grow has had courses in flower arrangement under several specialists. She helped organize the American Association of University Women and the women's division of the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce besides having served as president of the Women's Club, Rotary Anns and YWCA. Each year Mrs. Grow's lectures take her from Bakersfield to San Diego. She appears once a month at Barker Bros. in Los Angeles as a member of their Speaker's Forum.

MRS. MERRILL GROW
... To Speak Here

JUNIORS ATTEND FASHION AFFAIR

Attending the Marina District Juniors fashion luncheon in the Crystal room at the Beverly Hills Hotel Saturday were Mrs. James K. Lees, president of the juniors and her guest Mrs. Ray Ceder, Mmes. Allen Hofferber, John Hall, Richard Beecher, John Schwartz, Joe Bay, Robert Waddell and D. E. Moore.

"Autumn Spice" was the theme of the show carried out in an elegant autumn decor. The fall and winter collections of name designers were shown by Saks Fifth Ave.

AT BOARD MEETING

Mrs. B. J. Garrison of Torrance, president of the South Bay Area council of Beta Sigma Phi and Mrs. E. A. Somerville, of the Pi Phi chapter of Manhattan Beach attended the bi-monthly meeting of the Southern California Council of Beta Sigma Phi in Burbank yesterday.

National Board Member To Be Guest at Harbor Area YWCA Tea Tuesday

Women from the entire Harbor Area will be attending the YWCA National Interpretation Tea on Tuesday, Oct. 23, in the John Lanman home, 2037 Palos Verdes Dr., West, where Mrs. Earl Cranston, vice president of the National Board of the YWCA will speak.

Mrs. Cranston has participated in the World's Council of the YWCA in addition to her activities in national and local associations. She will bring to the group her experiences and tell of the work national of the association.

Working on the committee are: Mrs. Louis Ladra, chair-

Social World

EDNA CLOYD, Editor

OCT. 21, 1956

TORRANCE HERALD

Nine

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. Joe Eisenbrandt entertained at a family dinner in her home Saturday evening complimenting her son, J. A. Eisenbrandt, 1012 Acacia, on his birthday. Also present at the dinner party was Mrs. Eisenbrandt's mother, Mrs. Henry Schauer of Escondido, who spent the week end here with her daughter and family.

Club Hears Impressions Of Europe

Members and guests at the Torrance Woman's club meeting last Wednesday were delightfully entertained with impressions of a summer in Europe given by two American Field Service students, Tommy Quaggin and Jean Solomne. The two students were presented by Mrs. Dean Sears, program chairman.

Jean talked of the hospitality of the German family with whom she made her home and told of their eagerness to know more about America. Tommy showed colored slides of Germany, Paris, and the skyline of New York, giving exciting narrations as the films were shown. He delighted his audience with his description of the German wine festival and other customs of the country.

Mrs. L. A. McCoy conducted the business meeting following the pot luncheon. At this time, a donation was given to the Dental Health program and it was also decided that club members would sell Christmas candies as a ways and means project.

Mrs. Grover Van Deventer was chosen as the club's new international hostess.

Mrs. Parke Montague, membership chairman, presented the new members and added to this ever-increasing list were Mmes. J. A. Jenson, Byron Scotten, John Hogan, E. C. St. Amand, J. L. Clifford and W. J. Bulluck.

Guests at Wednesday's meeting were Mrs. James K. Lees, president of the Junior club, and Mrs. Joe Bay, president's aide.

Club members were greeted by Mrs. W. I. Laughon and Mrs. Roy Richards. The inspiration was given by Mrs. James Burchett.

Birthday Party for Joan Revell

Miss Joan Revell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Revell and a sophomore at Marymount High School was honored on her fifteenth birthday last week with a class party.

Mrs. Revell took a beautifully decorated birthday cake, in the school colors, blue and white, to the sophomore class. It was served with other refreshments as Joan received the happy birthday wishes from her classmates.

Attending the party were: Joan Gantner, Eileen Miles, Maureen Stapleton, Carol Sipola, Ann Caldwell, Margaret Ann Moore, Joanne Phillips, Mary-Ann Sweetman, Catherine Colby, Barbara Gonzales, Carmela Santucci, Kathleen Shea, Lois Wright, Angela Furlow, Cecilia Meade, Dennis O'Hara, Patrick Shirr, Tina Douglas, Susan Wing, Susan Fowler, Mary Moore and Donna Robbins.

LAS VEGAS TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Eisenbrandt and Mr. and Mrs. John Scanlon of Redondo Beach will leave Monday morning for Las Vegas to spend several days.

MRS. JERALD JAMES BLANKENSHIP
... Recent Bride

(Tak Leoba Studio)

Eleanor Bazilius Becomes Mrs. Blankenship on Oct. 5

Nostalgia mingled with sentiment as Miss Eleanor Bazilius walked down the aisle of the First Methodist Church in Gardena on Oct. 5 wearing white satin bridal slippers trimmed with rhinestones which had been worn by her mother at her wedding 25 years ago in Cleveland, Ohio. Miss Bazilius pledged her marriage vows with Jerald James Blankenship, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Blankenship of Fontana.

The lovely bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Bazilius 16945 Arlington Ave., Torrance, wore a gown of white bridal satin fashioned with a lace bodice with a sequined collar. Five tiers of lace formed the front of the satin skirt which fell into a train. A heart shaped pearl crown held the fingertip veil and she carried white roses centered with an orchid. Mr. Bazilius escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Mrs. Jan Keith, wearing pink chiffon and carrying red roses was the matron of honor. All of the bridesmaids were in blue chiffon and carried pink carnations. They were Misses Betty Blankenship, Patricia

(Continued on Page 10)

Lioness Club

As a surprise courtesy of the evening at the meeting of the Lioness club last Tuesday evening Mrs. A. F. R. Ewalt, a past president, was presented with a shower. The custom of giving handkerchief showers to their past presidents had been inaugurated since Mrs. Ewalt had served so the club members chose their dinner meeting as the time for the tribute.

Nineteen members were present at the Gardena restaurant. During a short business meeting conducted by Mrs. Abe Robinson plans for a pot luck to be held Nov. 24 were made.

The next business meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lowell Spring, 1219 Date Ave. on Nov. 6.

LOOKING OVER BROCHURES ... concerning their annual YWCA Support tea to be given Tuesday afternoon at the Lanman home in Palos Verdes are Mrs. Lee Stamps, chairman of national support; Mrs. Grover C. Van Deventer, personnel chairman, and Mrs. A. E. Palmer, chairman of the Torrance Branch committee. At the tea YWCA members and their guests will have the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Earl Cranston, member of the National YWCA executive board.

(Herald Photo)