

Big Rummage Sale Nov. 9-10

Members of the Altar Society of the Nativity Catholic Church have been working for the past six months preparing for their giant semi-annual rummage sale to be held Friday and Saturday, Nov. 9 and 10, in the Nativity parish hall, 1420 Cota Ave., from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. each day.

Mrs. Corwin Dean, chairman of the event, announces that there will be hundreds of real bargains for thrifty shoppers, all arranged in perfect order, making it unnecessary to rummage.

Starting on Monday, Nov. 5, through Thursday, Nov. 8, the hall will be open to receive donations every day from noon until 9 p.m.

Pickup service may be arranged with Mrs. Dean, Mrs. Robert Moffitt or by calling the rectory.

This is the guild's last money-making project of the year under the co-chairmanship of Mmes. Donald Franklin, Fred Cameron, Thomas Richter, Delbert White, Robert Moffitt, Frank Gately, William McDonald, John Tweedy, Joe Landerville, Regina Cunningham and Elles Cook.

BEFORE STAUFFER

How's this for someone who weighed 175 pounds?

Five months ago Mrs. Evelyn Petersen of Lawndale, Calif., weighed 175 pounds. Today she is a slim 120, has the proportions of a model, thanks to amazing Stauffer System.

Evelyn came to Stauffer because she needed the help of figure experts. Why not let us show what Stauffer can do for you? Simply call or come in for a free trial visit, and complete figure analysis.

Taylor Home Setting for Festive Event

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Taylor, 23903 Huber, combined their housewarming with a Halloween party Saturday evening, Oct. 27. The garage was decorated in a Halloween theme and a buffet was served all evening in the yard.

An unusual feature was the playing of several numbers by the Scottish Pipe Band from Santa Monica. Mr. Taylor's father is a member and played the bass drum in an ensemble which included a snare drum and bagpipe. Dancing followed in the party room.

The guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Milo Goetsch, Leland F. Campbell, Richard Campbell, Winston Campbell, Don Garrison, Howard J. Martin, John J. Sexton, Tom Millstead, Eugene Morris, Frank Sweeney, John Taylor, James Taylor; Mrs. Hattie Campbell, and Robert Peterson.

JO ANN SUMPTER IS NOW BRIDE OF JOHN C. MISKE

St. Emydius Catholic Church in Lynwood was the setting on Oct. 20 at 10 a.m. for the nuptial mass and ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Jo Ann Sumpter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Sumpter, 3914 242nd St., Torrance, and John Charles Miske, son of Mr. and Mrs. Miske of South Gate.

The bride came to the altar on the arm of Mr. Thomas F. Baeyens. Her gown was of Chantilly lace over tiers of tulle. The wedding veil of sheer illusion was held by a plateau headpiece of seed pearls and sequins. White orchids cov-

New Junior Garden Club Organized

Junior Greenthumbers' Garden Club held its first meeting at the home of Mrs. Earl Hubacek. New officers who will be installed at the January meeting are Eddie Sellmeyer, president; Tommy Peterson, vice president, and Miss Leslie Sautter, secretary. Enthusiasm ran high as the young people planned the course of events and decided on what they would like most to learn. Mrs. Hubacek made it clear she was presiding only in an advisory capacity and that it was the juniors who would organize and run the club.

At the first meeting the studies were confined mainly to "trees," identifying them, their products, and by-products. It was agreed that the club would bring samples of leaves to the next meeting where they would attempt to identify them and start their scrapbook.

erred the white prayerbook carried by the bride.

Mrs. Joy Leach wearing yellow lace over taffeta and carrying lavender chrysanthemums was the honor attendant. Mrs. June Kasko and Mrs. Bennie Lawson in aqua crystalline and carrying bouquets of pale pink carnations were the bridesmaids.

Raymond Grall stood as best man and ushers were Nick Miske, Michael Zagva, Nick Pondoff and Steve Zagva.

A reception followed at the home of the bridegroom's parents and the young couple spent a honeymoon in LaJolla. They are now at home in Lynwood.

The bride was graduated from the Torrance High school and the bridegroom is a graduate of St. Anthony's High school in Long Beach.

MRS. JOHN E. JAMES
... Wedding Announced

Mr., Mrs. John E. James Now at Home in Seattle

After a honeymoon in Palm Springs, Mr. and Mrs. John E. James are now at home in Seattle, Washington. Mrs. James is the former Sondra Kay Welty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow W. Welty, 175204 Yukon Ave. The couple were married Aug. 18 at 8 p.m. at the Hope Evangelical United Brethren Church.

Baskets of pink asters, gladioli, and fern decorated the church for the wedding, at which the Rev. Thomas B. Murphy officiated. As the 150 wedding guests assembled, Walter Hansen furnished a prelude of nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Keith Redman, who sang "Melody of Love," "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mr. Welty accompanied his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. Her wedding gown was a beautiful creation of lace and net over satin. Her Italian lace bridal veil cascaded from a pearl tiara and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses.

Miss Sandra Mayfield served as the maid of honor, wearing poufde blue lace and taffeta and carrying white carnations and gardenias.

Miss Susan Welty was her sister's junior bridesmaid. Susan's gown was of pink taffeta and had a net and satin overskirt. Her bouquet was of white carnations.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Carolyn Smith wearing pale rose chiffon lighted the candles for the double ring ceremony. Gerald Peck served as best man.

After the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. James was graduated from the Torrance High School in June 1956. She was also a member of the local Bethel of Job's Daughters.

Mr. James, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Peck of Monroe, Okla., was educated in Oklahoma. He is now serving with the United States Army, stationed in Seattle, Wash.
