STROLLIN' THROUGH SOUTHWEST PARK

Showers Continue Unabated in Spite of Brisk Fall Weather

By RUTH FOSTER
FR 9-5508

A popular song informs us, "If you want the things you love, you must have showers." And we're here to assure you that few things are more lovable than a new infant, and for such as this there have been showers a plenty of late. Mrs. Earl Van Fleet was guest of honor when Mrs. Edgar Wilson and Mrs. Jerry Traynor gave a party with a stork theme last Wednesday night. Mmes. M. N. Mitchell, Robert Miller and Guy Lionberger were some who were eligible for prizes. Mrs. Jack Bowles, Mrs. John Coates and Mrs. Ronny Palmer helped to fill the gift-laden bassinet which was guarded by a kindly, quiet stork. Enjoying the tempting cakes inscribed with "baby" were Mrs. Bob Lansing, Mrs. Bruce Wendling, Mrs. William Freeman, Mrs. Dorothy Robinson and Mrs. Muriel Ball.

On Carmelynn, Mrs. Albin Weber and Mrs. Willard Hober made preparations for a similar affair. But so eager were they for the guest of honor, Mrs. Claude Gordon, to mother a daughter they topped a decorated angel food cake with the statement, "It's a girl . . ." followed by a question mark, just in case. Handmade aprons were given as door prizes. Admiring these were Mmes. Mary Truitt, Wanda Redman, Frances Dodge, Betty House and Sandy Stokes. Mrs. Dewene Meyers, Mrs. Betty Mariette and Mrs. Vi Hargraves also enjoyed this occasion.

Out-of-towners have been bringing pleasure and company to several residents. Mr. and Mrs. Everett Dixon, on Cadison are hosts of Mrs. Dixon's parents from Silverton, Ore. Mr. and Mrs. Henry McClure, who plan to stay long enough to break the Thanksgiving turkey wishbone with grandson Dick Dixon. While here the McClures will see their other daughter off for Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Cian are setting another place at their table for an old friend from Louisville, Ky., Hugh Burrell. Because their families are now quite self-reliant, grandmothers do seem to get around. The Don Perry children on Narrot St. are getting all the attention they can from Don's mother, Mrs. Ida Belle Perry. She plans to leave San Francisco for Misawa, Japan, in February. A daughter lives there. Also enjoying the Perry hospitality are Mrs. Mitt Preston, an aunt from Childress, Tex., and Mrs. Fred Powell, another aunt whose home is in Oklahoma City.

A 20-piece band, directed by Martin Baum of North Torrance High, made delightful music for the Teen-Age Halloween dance Friday night, Oct. 26, in the Carl Steele cafeteria. About 75 couples took advantage of this opportunity to have fun close to their homes and without going in the red allowance-wise. The teen-age committee is conducted by its chairman, Steve Whelan. The group members include Sue Porter, Kay Porter, Linda Jurco, Geraldine Colan, Lee Breski and Lenore Federio.

We may be a bit tardy in reporting this birth announcement but it's the sort of news that never loses its importance to the parties involved. On the 3rd of September (we said we were tardy) a son, Edward Jr., was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hill, of 4930 Towers. At home to teach the little man to make his first patty-cake is brother Willie, 3 years.

Tut, tut, little boys in blue jeans and striped T-shirts. We see you emerging from the drainage ditch. And that sign strictly forbids entrance. Better mind mother not to let you play near that place between Halison and Deelane where it says, "Keep out, insecticide."

When the lights go on up and down Cadison soon folks on that street will be reminded of, and grateful for, all the effort that went into this accomplishment. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hughes juggled their personal schedules to include special trips to the City Council and hours of collecting, bookkeeping, etc. Other homeowners on Cadison gave unselfishly, too. And thanks to all of them and the Hugheses the lights will soon be in use.

"Make Hawthorne Blvd. Beautiful" may well be the motto of the Improvement Committee of our Southwest Park Civic Assn., although they have many other plans besides. Stop signs are to be placed near the school, and this project is headed by Mr. McCowen, FR 2-7052. Mrs. Harry Hughes is the chairman of those interested in beautifying Hawthorne Blvd. Mrs. "Tex" Cadenhead, chairman of the Improvement Committee, would be glad to hear from anyone who would like to help bring these plans to pass. Her phone, FR 9-6404.

If you often find yourself saying, "Why doesn't the tract do this?" you may be glad to know that the Civic Assn. now has a suggestion box. It will be used at each meeting to receive any worthwhile ideas the residents would like to see used. Or perhaps you've been disturbed by a situation that needs attention. That, too, could be written and slipped into the box for suggestions. It will be at the next meeting Nov. 6 in the Carl Steele cafeteria, 8 p.m.

A long distance call from his folks in Tucson, Ariz., gave Jack Kirby an especially happy birthday Sunday. He and his wife Lou Ann and daughters had gone to Pomona to visit Jack's brother, Robert, and family. So everybody had a chance to talk to everybody. Fantastic things, telephones.

Does Junior expect to be paid for his chores around the house? If so, you might find this list interesting. It was printed awhile back in a woman's magazine, and the wages don't seem too unreasonable.

Of course regular duties must be done before work for pay is tackled. We revised them somewhat.

Local Sailors Pass Equator On Cruise

Two Torrance sailors took part in traditional Shellback ceremonies held aboard the radar picket destroyer, USS Frank Knox, as it crossed the equator in October enroute from Honolulu to Pago Pago. Frank L. Christensen, machinist's mate third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. Christensen of 1959 Reynosa Dr., and George R. Warburton, damage controlman first class, son of George H. Warburton of 2436 Androm Ave., were aboard the radar picket destroyer USS Frank Knox.

Traditional Shellback ceremonies were held on the equator crossing. One of the oldest nautical traditions, the ceremonies are conducted as a vessel crosses the equator into the mythical realm of King Neptune — legendary ruler of the seven seas.

Uninitiated crew members are called "polywogs" and enter the hallowed ranks of Shellbacks only upon completing a colorful and traditional initiation ceremony.

Local Nimrods Bring Home Utah Deer Limb
R. D. McEwen, 22805 California Ave., and his son Bill, 1977 Reynola Dr., brought back four deer from a recent hunting excursion into the wilds around Coveport, Utah.

The hunters braved 18 inches of snow, a caved in kitchen tent, and a 3 a.m. rising hour to bring back the venison to the local food locker.
