THANKSGIVING DINNER . . . Mrs. Theresa Gulzetti, 1754-C Cabrillo Ave., looks at the huge 7½ pound sweet potato which she raised in a small garden by her apartment. The potato, which is about 10 times bigger than the average, would be enough for a Thanksgiving dinner, she decided. She has no explanation for the big vegetable, and said she didn't even fertilize the ground.

GOING . . . Members of the congregation at the First Methodist Church, El Prado and Manuel Ave., get ready to topple the dome of the old church, part of which is being razed to make room for additions and alterations. The dome, which weighed more than 1000 pounds, was first sawed loose from its supports.

NORTH HIGH BEAUTIES . . . One of these five girls will be North High School's Homecoming Queen and will be crowned at the NHS-El Segundo, game tomorrow night. The other girls will be members of the court. Aspirants for the crown are Babs Cage, Diane Trimlew, Sharyn Rich, Carol Lesar, and Midge Simons.

JOINS AUTO AGENCY . . . Ted Green, new sales manager of Paul's Chevrolet, is young in years but old in experience in the automobile business. Formerly general manager of the George Murphy Chevrolet Co., Green is a graduate of SC and the Dealers' Sons Institute of the Chevrolet Motor Co. He is a captain in the Marine Corps and saw duty in the Korean war as a Lieutenant. Green, who is married and the father of two young daughters, resided in the Baldwin Hills section of Los Angeles. He is enthused over the prospects of becoming associated with one of Torrance's leading automobile agencies.

MONEY FOR SWIMMERS . . . Lt. L. J. Balley accepts a check for $1000 for use of the Los Angeles County Lifeguards at the international swimming meet to be held in Melbourne, Australia, in connection with the Olympic games. Mayor Albert Isen makes the presentation of the funds, raised at a benefit meet held here Sunday evening.

GONE . . . The Methodist volunteers watch as the dome hurtles toward the ground, where it splattered to pieces in a shower of plaster. The wreckers figured closely to avoid sending the heavy dome through the roof of a nearby building. Originally built in 1928, the old church is being remodeled to house a larger congregation.

HOUSE DESTROYED . . . A Palos Verdes fireman fights the fire at 24900 Hawthorne Blvd. Tuesday night. The house was almost totally destroyed in the flames which were battled by both Torrance and Palos Verdes firemen. The house was occupied by the Francis Glabe family, which also lived in a trailer nearby.

Spalding, works manager of National Supply Company and member of the campaign Industry Committee; Mother M. Patricia, a member of Mother Genevieve's hospital council, and George W. Post, campaign treasurer. The Sisters came from Evergreen Park, Ill., U.S. headquarters for the Little Company of Mary.

50,000TH CUSTOMER . . . Mrs. Don Vaupel is showered with gifts by Gamble M. Stendel, manager of the American Savings' Redondo Beach office after it was determined that the surprised young lady was the 50,000th person to open a savings account with the American Savings & Loan Assn.
