Baptists Will Hear Ex-Broadway Star

Bill Carle, noted basso who was a Broadway star for many years, will be guest soloist Friday evening at 6:30 at the First Baptist Church, 2118 W. Carson St.

An all-church potluck dinner will be held in the fellowship hall in connection with Christian Family Relations Week. The public is invited.

The holder of the record on Broadway for consecutive performances, Carle gave up his life in show business for the presentation of sacred music.

He has given two command performances at the White House and on several occasions was featured singer at musical functions there. He was featured soloist on the ABC network "Hour of Faith" and the CBS "Church of the Air" and has appeared on radio and TV many times. He also is a noted recording artist.

COMMUNION RITES SET AT SOUTH BAY CHURCH

Preceding the ordinance of the Lord's Supper at duplicate 9:45 and 11 a.m. services in the South Bay Baptist Church, 4565 Sharynne Lane, the pastor, Dr. J. C. Brumfield, will bring a "Communion Meditation."

At evening worship services at 7:30 Dr. Brumfield will continue his series of messages on the "Book of Jonah" and has chosen as his topic "Mr. Nobody Goes to Ninevah." A complete modern crib-nursery is available at all church services.

Presbyterian Youth Choirs Plan Concert

A Choir Festival featuring the five youth choirs of the First Presbyterian Church, 1842 Gardena Blvd., will be held Friday evening at 7:30 at the church.

"The Approval of God" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. Truman M. Jolley at the church Sunday morning. The senior choir, directed by Florence Jolley, will sing "O Make Our Hearts to Blossom," by Joseph W. Clokey, and "With a Heart of Singing," by Martin Shaw.

A class for church membership will meet at 9:20 a.m. The session will meet at 10:15 a.m. Members will be received during worship.

Communion Service Set By Lutherans

Holy Communion will be celebrated next Sunday at the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection, 330 Palos Verdes Blvd., with Pastor Lyle B. Gangs preaching at the 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m. services.

There will be a basketball dinner at the La Venta Inn tonight at 8 p.m. to celebrate the church team's second place finish. Team members who will participate are Rod Uglum, Craig Edmond, Chuck Coates, Bill Fitzgerald, Jim Lawrence Jr., Mike McIntyre, Jerry Breedlove, and Robert Taylor.

Twelve Words that Open a New World

One sentence, in a book read today probably more often than any other but the Bible, has opened the door to an entirely new outlook on religion in daily life: "Divine Love always has met and always will meet every human need."

This sentence is found, with many others arresting and awakening, in the Christian Science textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy.

By successfully explaining God's spiritual law and how it works, this book shows how to live according to the Science of Christ, or Christian Science. The healing power of the Bible promises has been made practical and probable.

Christian Science has beyond question restored Christian healing to the modern world. A grateful, growing multitude testify to its healing power.

Open House to Show Mormons' Teenage Plans

An open house to show community leaders and the general public what is being done for teenagers will be held at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, 220th and Cabrillo Ave., Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

The young people's organization will demonstrate its program to combat juvenile delinquency. City, school, and church leaders especially have been invited.

30 Baptized at Lutheran Church

Thirty persons were received into Ascension Lutheran Church, 18002 Prairie Ave., through baptism last Sunday.

The Rev. Lloyd Warneke performed the rites for the following persons:

Sandra and Randolph McMillan; Todd, Dale, and Gary Deike; Stephen, Karen, Diane, and John Warner; Kathleen Doty; Sandra Fiske; Ronald Ancoedo; Robert Calkins; Roberta and Barbara Tan; Carol and Ronald Gonsler; Jacky Brenneisen; Ronald Verne; Nancy Freedman; Bennett Eisinger; Susan, Mary, and Joanne Yarnell; Charlotte, Michael, Dennis, and Peggy Taylor; David Weems; Sandra Edwards; Beverly and Linda Phillips; and Donald and Ronald Pyles.

Rev. Warneke now is attending the district convention of pastor and lay delegates of Southern California District Missions at San Diego, which will end tomorrow.

The pastor and 12 ladies from the church attended the spring rally of the Centinella Valley zone of the Lutheran Woman's Missionary League, held at Our Saviour Lutheran Church, Westchester, last Friday. The theme was "Lift Up Mine Eyes."

Youth Assume Narbonne Church Duties

The Narbonne Avenue Baptist Youth Week ended on last Sunday, April 28, with some 56 young people working in positions ordinarily filled by adults.

Serving at Youth Week pastor was Larry Glen Aycock. Acting as Sunday school superintendent was Tom Houston, and training union director was Jim Ruffin. This is an annual affair in the local church.

Plans have been made to enter two teams in the church softball league. There will be a youth team and a team for adult men. To qualify for the team, the players must be regular in attendance of church activities.

The church has enlarged the seating capacity of its auditorium and will have only one morning worship service. The 8:30 a.m. service will be discontinued because of the increased seating capacity. The pastor, Robert A. Wells, will begin a series of sermons on the Miracles of Jesus.
