Ralphs Hosts Fireman Joe On Saturday

TV star "Fireman Joe" will entertain the kiddies at Ralphs Market's new South Bay store, 174th and Hawthorne Ave., Saturday starting at 2 p.m. He will remain at the store until all the children lined up to see him have had a ride on his bright red fire engine, Sparky, the firehouse pup, will be with him. Gifts for the children who come to see him will be presented, the fireman said. These include Rumba kites, "thimbledrome" hot-roads and steamboats, toys and souvenirs, boat rides in Long Beach Pierpoint Harbor, horseback rides in Hollywood, and an airplane trip for three to Catalina, with three days' accommodation at the St. Catherine Hotel. All 35 Ralphs stores are featuring "Manager's Month" special during May, according to Earl Miller, manager of the local market. "We hope everyone will come in and get acquainted," said Miller. "In the two weeks that the store has been in operation we've met some mighty fine folks and we want to know you better. Intruder Flees When His Question Answered An intruder who kept inquiring whether anybody was home fled when he found that somebody was, two Lomita told sheriff's deputies Tuesday. Joan M. Hickey and Lenore Sullivan, 2321 Pacific Coast Hwy., told deputies that they heard a knock at the door and then a man came into the house inquiring, "Is anyone home?" When the two women appeared in the living room, the man fled, they reported.
