Courtesy For Mary Daniels, Bride-elect

Miss Mary Daniels, whose wedding to Ron Alexander is planned for July 14, at the First Baptist Church of Torrance, was complimented at a miscellaneous bridal shower on May 13. The rumpus room of Mrs. Jerry Loy, 2116 Middlebrook Rd., was the beautiful scene of the party with Mrs. Joe Holphand and Mrs. Nick Giacinto as hostesses. The table was decorated with a pink and white motif on which was placed an elaborately decorated pink umbrella with pink carnations and a floral piece of pink and white flowers placed in a white milk glass punch bowl around which was displayed the many gifts for Mary.

All present enjoyed playing games after which Miss Daniels was presented an array of miscellaneous gifts. The hostesses then served refreshments. Attending the party were:

SALLY SPECK TO SERVE ON COUNCIL

Sally Speck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Speck, 1511 Acacia Ave., has been chosen to serve on the Council of the Fellowship for Christian Action at the Baker University, Baldwin, Kans., for the school year, 1957-58.

MRS. JESSE W. GLANCE
... Married May 4

Salomone - Glance Nuptials Are Read at St. Anthony's

Miss Jean Marie Salomone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Salomone, 17032 Arlington Ave., walked down the aisle of the St. Anthony's Catholic Church in Gardena on Saturday, May 4, at 1:30 p.m., to exchange her wedding vows with Jesse W. Glance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse W. Glance of Anaheim.

The bridal gown was made of Chantilly lace and tulle. Details included a Queen Anne collar, long sleeves and a billowy tulle skirt with panels of Chantilly. The full veil was secured by a lace and pearl headpiece and the bridal bouquet was of white orchids encircled by white carnations and stephanotis. Mr. Salomone escorted his daughter to the altar.

Mrs. Josephine Salomone served as the matron of honor. She wore an imported light green crystalline gown and carried green and white carnations.

The bridesmaids were Misses Sheila Marcus and Diane Bledsoe. They wore yellow crystalline gowns and carried yellow and white carnation bouquets.

Marc Peter Salomone carried the rings to the altar. Gary Glance stood as best man and ushers were Mike Luongo and Jim East. Mrs. Gloria Fredericks, at the organ, played the wedding marches and the Rev. Hill officiated at the marriage.

A buffet supper at the American Legion Hall in Hawthorne was held for the 125 wedding guests. Music for dancing was provided by the North High Combo band. A honeymoon was spent in Las Vegas.

The bride will be graduated next month from North High School. She will leave July 1 for Ft. Campbell, Ky., to join her husband who is stationed there with the paratroopers.

Gala Party For Frank IV

The first birthday of Frank Paour IV was the incentive for a gala party on Friday, May 24, in the patio at the home of Frank's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Leech, 727 Border Ave.

The honor guest is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paour III, 2064 W. 222nd St.

The birthday cake was served with punch, ice cream and popcorn.

Children attending the party were Debbie Farrar, Linda Moreno, Janet Johnson, Linda Forth, Donnie Roy, Kerry and Lori Parker and their mothers.

Children invited but unable to attend were Joe Nortenson, Donnie Powell and Lori Rushfeldt.

Other party guests were Mrs. Frank Paour, Jr., grandmother; Mrs. Ruth Bradley, great-mother; Jim Leech, an uncle, and Mrs. Peg Schmuck.

Local Girls Off to Europe On June 20

June 20 will be an important date for two local girls, Mary Sipple of the Torrance High School and Marjorie Towle of North High School, who were chosen by the American Field Service to study in Europe this summer.

On this day the two girls will fly to Montreal, Canada, where they will embark on the Arosa Kuhn sailing for Rotterdam. Mary will go to Finland where she will spend the month of July with Mr. and Mrs. Kosti Saarinen in Hyvikaala. The Saarinen daughter is a student at the University of Helsinki. August will be spent in Lahti with Mr. and Mrs. Leo Tyrni and daughter Maija. Mr. Tyrni is an attorney.

Marjorie will spend her summer with families in Sweden.

SQUARE DANCERS HAVE PARTY

Square dance group of the St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Redondo held a party Saturday evening at a San Pedro restaurant. Dancing was enjoyed on an outside pavilion. Lyle and Fain Cook served as hosts. John Galbraith was the caller.

The next meeting will be held June 8 at El Retiro Park with Tom and Donna Lemley as hosts. Guest caller will be Dale Heath.

WANKE'S RETURN

Mr. and Mrs. William Wanke of Rolling Hills spent a wonderful two weeks in their home town of Cleveland, Ohio, returning home last week via the new non-stop airline flight.

While in the eastern city the localities were royally entertained by former high school friends, and friends from the Army days.

The couple stayed with Mr. Wanke's parents and Mrs. Wanke's family, arriving from Florida; made the reunion complete.

FASHION SHOW

Among the localities attending the initial luncheon fashion show that was recently held at the Plush Horse restaurant was Mrs. Lilly Anne Hyde who was observing her birthday anniversary in a party given by Mrs. Harry M. Lindsey of the harbor area.

Guests included Miss Emma Cocksedge, Torrance visitor from Yorkshire, England, who was also celebrating her birthday.

MISS GLORIA BOWEN
... Writes on Torrance

Gloria Bowen's Essay Wins Honorable Mention

Gloria Bowen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bowen, 1225 Madrid Ave., Torrance, received an honorable mention award, for her essay submitted to the Los Angeles County History Essay Contest for High School, sponsored by the Phi Alpha Theta, National Honor Society in History through the Zeta-Alpha Chapter, Immaculate Heart College.

Miss Bowen, a student at Marymount High School, Palos Verdes, won her award on an essay entitled "Torrance, A Constantly Developing City," in which she traced the development of Torrance from the days of the Spanish Land Grants up to the present era.

Beta Sigmas Attend Meet

Four localities attended the 17th annual convention of Beta Sigma, non-academic sorority, last week end at the Ambassador Hotel.

Some 950 members from California's 520 chapters were on hand for the two-day meeting.

Representing this area were Mrs. Don Fisher, president of Xi Zeta Lambda chapter; Mrs. Emerson Wilce, vice president of Lambda Eta; Mrs. Carl Andress, past president of Lambda Eta; and Miss Blanche Wright, president of the South Bay Area council of Beta Sigma Phi.

Dish Towel Shower Given By Mothers

The May meeting of the Job's Daughters Mothers Club, Bethel 50, was held at the home of Mrs. Eunice Walker, 1537 W. 183rd St. with each member contributing towards a dish towel shower for the organization's kitchen use.

The inspirational message was read by Mrs. Charles Hornbeck, after which Mrs. Carl Osterlind reported on the success of a recent luncheon the mothers served as a ways and means project.

Plans for the group's part in the June 1 installation of Job's Daughters were discussed as well as a dinner for the Masons in the near future.

Mrs. William Roy, president, announced arrangements were under way for the annual Jobs summer program at Crestline.

Refreshments and a social hour followed the close of the business meeting.
