

NEW TV STAR... "Chipper," purebred wire-haired terrier, takes a good look at the television screen where he will appear Saturday, 6 p.m., on the Pet Showcase, Channel 5. With "Chipper" is his owner, Miss Kay Leslie, 462 Palos Verdes Blvd., a physical education teacher at North High School. The terrier got his chance to star on television when he placed first in obedience trials recently. He also won 25 pounds of dog food and a book on his breed.

National Secretaries Install First Officers

Installation and initiation of officers and charter members of the South Bay Chapter of the National Secretaries Association, International, was held Thursday evening, May 16, at the Plush Horse. An impressive candle-light service initiating charter members of the organization was conducted by Dorine George, second vice president of the California Division of NSA after which Marie Bishop, president of the California Division of NSA, who flew from Oakland for the ceremonies, installed the first officers of the South Bay Chapter.

New officers are Bernice Goodwin, president; Cecilia M. Daniels, first vice president; Elizabeth J. Pedersen, second vice president; Jeanne F. Bader, recording secretary; Isabelle C. Ingersoll, corresponding secretary; Thema Steiner, treasurer; and Margaret Beavers, public relations representative.

Charter members initiated were: Irma Jean Brady, Grace Jane Eastcott, Daryne B. Faulkenbury, Beryl Folts, Beth G. Givan, Eleanor Hager, Pauline R. McKee, Myrtle C. Maier, Helen Mainey, Marjorie P. Moss, Patsy K. Porter, Velma I. Robertson, Anne N. Sixbery, Dorothy M. Skelton, Hilda G. Smith, Lillie M. Timmons, Marjorie M. Wells, Violet Whittington, Ferol G. Young.

Reatha Iverson, first vice president of the California Division of National Secretaries Assn., was a special guest.

Next meeting of the South Bay Chapter of NSA will be held June 20. Anyone wishing information is asked to call Bernice Goodwin.

INITIATED INTO MUSIC FRATERNITY

Mickey Van Deventer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Van Deventer, 2203 Carson St., was initiated as a member of the University of Redlands chapter of Pi Kappa Lambda, national honorary music fraternity, May 6.

Three faculty members and three students were welcomed into the fraternity with Miss Van Deventer at the annual year end banquet of the organization.

Recitals Presented

A group of students from the studio of Gertrude Lumsden, teacher of piano and voice on Binedwald Road, Torrance, were presented in recital on Sunday afternoon at the Woman's Clubhouse, Redondo Beach. Compositions by classic and contemporary composers were performed. Participants exhibited technical proficiency, discrimination in phrasing, fine sense of rhythm and good singing tone. The audience expressed its pleasure and approval with genuine enthusiasm.

Those participating were pianists Candy McDonald, Larry Edman, Richard Applegate, Barbara Steinwachs, Darlene Sjoblom, Kenneth Hill, Sidney Sparks, Bruce Stackhouse, Philip Carney, Craig Robinson, William Steinwachs, Bruce Shockency and Christopher Edman. Soprano soloist was Marian Kaleta.

Two of the performers, Craig Robinson and Christopher Edman, had just been awarded first rating gold medals and cash prizes in the 1957 Biennial Piano Recording Festival, sponsored by the National Guild of Piano Teachers, and these awards were presented to them at the recital.

JOIN BOAT RACE

Lee Washington, 232 Via La Miradores in Hollywood Riviera, was a member of the crew in last week end's boat race to Eresnada.

When the "Diablo" hove into the Mexican harbor—15th in a field of 232—Mrs. Washington was on hand.

She and some of the other wives motored to the resort. Highlights of the trip included the President's Dance Saturday and then meeting the boat and crew again in San Diego Sunday for lunch.

Mrs. Thomas will spend a month in Europe. Highlighting her trip will be her visit with the family in France who befriended her husband during the war when he was behind enemy lines in France.

Attending the party were Mmes. James Van Dyck, E. D. Hauk, Betty Angle, Donald Hack, Bob Hamilton, Gustave Galle, Mae Coulter, P. B. McMahan, P. B. Parker, E. D. Hauk, Sr., and Miss Maxine Way.

DINNER, DANCING

Six local couples enjoyed dinner and dancing at the Moulin Rouge last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bowman of Lomita, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Osborne and Mr. and Mrs. William Tilley were the diners.

Beau Jardin Club Hears Nurseryman

Beau Jardin Club meeting was held at the home of Mrs. William Singery, 22509 Warm-side Ave., with Mmes. William Singery and Kenneth Moe as co-hostesses.

Kenneth Terry, Hawthorne nurseryman, was the speaker for the evening. His talk, entitled "General Gardening," began with the showing of a lovely variety of flowers suitable for this soil and climate.

He spoke of grass seeds, soil penetration, and plant food—stating that the people of Southern California are the biggest users of commercial fertilizers in the country. A question and answer period followed, discussing personal garden problems.

Mrs. Kenneth Harmon, horticulture chairman, presented each member with a different specie of fuchsia and gave a brief talk on the planting and care of them.

A botanical game was played with Mrs. John Beattie as top winner of a bergenia and Mr. Kenneth Harmon coming in second winning a yellow climbing rose. The door prize, an arbor vitae tree, was won by Mrs. Donald Drorbaugh.

Present at the meeting were Mmes. John Beattie, John Cariveau, Donald Drorbaugh, Kenneth Harmon, James Stadler, Robert Hill, Kenneth Moe, John Regan, William Singery, Fred Worgul and Albert Yackle. Mrs. Donald Dickson was a guest.

The next meeting of the club will be held June 12 at the home of Mrs. Robert Hill, 22403 Redbeam Ave.
