July 4 Carnival Will Be Held at Masonic Temple

Betsy Ross Club, social unit of Torrance Eastern Star, will hold a Carnival July 4, on the grounds of the Torrance Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo Ave., in Torrance.

Booths of many kinds will have for sale, aprons, fancy work, (clever gift items) suitable for gifts or prizes; games of skill, foods, and cold drinks.

Special attraction for the children will be a big booth, that will feature cotton candy, candied apples, snow cones and hot popcorn.

Delight of every small-fry will be the pony rides, tractor scooters and a trained mule that will kneel to let his rider slide from his back in graceful fashion at the close of the trip around the grounds.

There will be hamburgers, hot dogs, doughnuts, sweet rolls and coffee to be had at the various booths.

Fortunes will be told by the gypsies, and those who are wise in the way of tea leaves, will entertain the curious.

The dining room in the new Temple will be open to feed those who wish to be free from Fourth of July cooking, and luncheon for all can be selected from hot beef sandwiches, potato salad or mashed potatoes, a variety of chili dishes and hot or cold drinks.

At long attractive tables, visitors may be seated and visit with friends while they enjoy the luncheon hour.

The carnival will open at 9 a.m. and carry on through the day until 8 p.m.

This day has been long in planning and the public is cordially invited to attend and spend the day at the carnival.
