Meadow Park Flavian

"Hit the Mark with Meadow Park" is the new slogan of the Fall membership campaign for Meadow Park PTA.

This was decided upon at a meeting held recently at the home of Mrs. J. Agapito, membership chairman. Also present were Mrs. J. T. Anagnost, PTA President, H. Farris, principal, Mrs. G. G. Anderson, Mrs. L. H. Osborne, Mrs. C. R. Howard and Mrs. W. R. Lott.

The PTA is cordially inviting all Meadow Park parents to join in this year's membership drive, which will be from Oct. 7 through 14.

Flavian PTA was host recently at the opening session of Parent Teachers Information Course, held in the Flavian Cafeteria.

Following introductions, District Leader Mrs. Edward Kemp opened the discussion with the subject "Leadership." Handbooks for the course were distributed by Mrs. V. R. Terry, financial secretary of council. Mrs. William Duell recording secretary for the course, took charge of writing answers to questions asked.

The course will continue through Aug. 6.

El Nido

A meeting of the El Nido PTA program planning committee was held Thursday, June 28 at 18305 Roslin Ave., to make tentative plans for the year's association meetings. Mrs. J. Westmoreland, chairman; Mrs. Amos Chadwick, Mrs. Paul Herring and William Forrest, principal, combined their ideas in an effort to bring El Nido PTA members an up-to-date story on the growth of the school, home and community facilities.

186th Street

Faculty of the 186th Street School were guests at a luncheon given by Mrs. Herman Eisenbeis, PTA president, on the last day of school, June 21. The luncheon was given as a token of appreciation for the cooperation she has received from the faculty during her two year term as PTA president.

Previously, the faculty had been presented with a handkerchief tree from the executive board. A large gold tree, topped with the letters "3 R'S" was covered with handkerchiefs pinned on with tiny ribbons. The members of the faculty were invited to choose the one that pleased them most. Mrs. Eisenbeis was assisted at her luncheon by Mmes. James Ellis, Walter Stewart, and James McMillen.

Auxiliary, Post Install On July 15

On July 15 at 8 p.m. in the Gardena Barn, 15016 Daphne, the Western Flying Unit 542, American Legion Auxiliary, will hold installation of its new officers.
