Alpha Gamma Benefit Set For Sept. 21

South Bay Alumnae Assn. of Alpha Gamma Delta, an international collegiate sorority founded in 1904, is planning a luncheon and fashion show benefit, Sept. 21, at the Plush Horse in Hollywood Riviera.
The planning committee met at the home of the chairman, Mrs. James Post, 3118 Sonoma, Torrance, July 23, to map out arrangements for the gala affair. Lillian's of Hollywood Riviera Village is scheduled to present her fall fashions at this time. "The Harvest Collection" of new fashions will arrive just hours before the Alpha Gamma show, and promises the very latest in fall designs.
Those organizing the details of the luncheon at the Post home were, Mrs. Duane Enochs and Mrs. Sydney Pattison of Manhattan Beach; Mrs. Richard Kincaid of Torrance; Mrs. Edward Greenblatt and Mrs. Otto Willett of Hollywood Riviera.

MRS. PATRICIA R. LABELL
... Weds at High Noon

Lancaster - Labell Rites Read at St. Catherine's

At high noon on Saturday, July 27, at St. Catherine Laboure Catholic Church, the wedding of Miss Gloria Jean Lancaster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sanders, 17039 Delia Ave., and Patrick R. Labell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Labell, 17202 Delia Ave., was solemnized.

The Rev. R. J. Tepe stood before the place of ceremony at the altar rail marked with large baskets of white stock and gladioli and standards holding white candles.
Mr. Sanders escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a ballerina length gown of white net and lace. A crown of pearls held her illusion veil and she carried a cascade of white carnations encircling white orchids.

Miss Mary Jo Labell, sister of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor. Her waltz length gown was of blue dotted swiss trimmed with blue net. She wore a band of pink flowers in her hair and carried a nosegay of pink carnations.
Little Susie Labell, wearing a pink dotted swiss frock and a band of blue flowers in her hair, was the flower girl. She carried a pink nosegay tied with blue ribbon. Chuckie Labell carried the ring.

Pearson, Jewel Lawrence, Ruth Whitney, Madeline Perry, Margaret Pelland and Jennie Midyett.

The shower was held at the Jacobs' home where the traditional pink and white colors prevailed. The centerpiece was a pink and white stork cake inscribed "To the Little Mother." The gift table which was covered with a white linen cut-work cloth was canopied with a pink tulle and ribbon umbrella.
Bringing gifts for the expected baby were: Mmes. Louise Kilburn, Margaret Evans, Margie Costas, Edna Babcock, Mary Clark, Ann Armstrong, Myrl Haight, Margaret Gadke and Lucille Scarborough; Misses Mollie Marshall, Olive Marshall and Claire Guetzkow.
Unable to attend, but sending gifts, were Mmes Ora Meek, Gladys Breeding, Elodia

Mr. Labell was educated in St. Louis, Mo. and is now employed by Firestone.

FISHING TALE

It was a sad fishing tale the George Betus family, of 2321 Robert Rd., had to tell when they arrived home from their vacation last week.

Together with their children, Pamela, and George Jr., they toured Lake Isabella, Sequoia, Yosemite, Bass Lake and Miller Lake.

They fished at all the likely looking spots for two weeks—and no one caught a fish.

RELATIVES HERE

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mosely have as their houseguests Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Naumann and son, Billy, of Tucson, Ariz., and Mrs. R. S. Johnson and granddaughters, Nancy and Cynthia, of Fort Worth, Tex.

GRANDSON HERE
