Janice Bell and Craig Chudy Married at Wayside Chapel

Mr. and Mrs. William Bell, 1909 W. 252nd St., Lomita, are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Janice Nadine, to Craig Chudy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chudy, 26374 S. Western Ave., Lomita.

The wedding was solemnized Saturday evening, Aug. 17 at the Wayside Community church in the presence of family members only. The Rev. Richard Prescott officiated.

For her wedding the bride wore a gold embroidered white jersey sheath with yellow accessories. She carried a nosegay of yellow rosebuds and stephanotis. She also carried a small white Bible.

Standing with the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Berry. Mrs. Berry wore a navy blue dress with white accessories and carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

A reception was held at the home of the bride where a tiered wedding cake centered the table. The couple left for Loma Pine Lodge and in the High Sierras for a honeymoon. They will be temporarily at home with the bride's parents until school begins. They will move to Westwood where the bridegroom will continue his education at UCLA.

Both the bride and the bridegroom attended Narbonne High School.

'Whoopee' Parties

Members of the North Torrance Fuchsia Society have begun a series of "whoopie" parties to be held at members' homes.

Mrs. Ida Hechtner, 17038 Fay Smith Ave., was hostess last week at the first party. Mrs. Maxine Kildoo won the high prize of the evening.

Refreshments were served to Mmes. Louise Soth, Ida Hechtner, Rose Hinkel, Margaret Clark, Elsa Stone, Doris Bissallott, Maxine Kildoo, Hazel Smith and Messrs. Oliver Stone and Frank Hinkel.

Janice Smith, the group's Fuchsia Show "princess" also was present.

Madrecitas Benefit Luau Slated Today

Luau Hawaii, catering firm featured as a part of the new Polynesian restaurant soon to open on Highway 101 in Welteria is donating all decorations and serving as consultant for "Luau for Loo" benefit dinner dance sponsored by Las Madrecitas, South Bay Auxiliary to the Crippled Children's Hospital. Three hundred orchid blooms and other exotic flowers will decorate the Palos Verdes Country Club for the affair to be held Aug. 25. United Airlines have also graciously offered placemats and matches to add to the festivities.

Purpose behind the evening's gaiety is to promote the sale of tickets to the opening night premiere of the antique and decorators show to be held at the Pan Pacific Auditorium in October. All proceeds from premiere night are to go to the Crippled Children's Guild for the erection of a pediatric floor in the new Orthopedic Hospital.

A part of the premiere under the direction of Las Madrecitas, will be a fashion show by Lane of clothes designed expressly to be worn in the model rooms that will be displayed by some of the country's leading decorators.

Co-op School Plans to Add New Teacher

Because of its desire to meet the needs of the growing community, the Gardena Co-op Nursery School, 149th and Crenshaw, has just approved plans for expansion which include the hiring of a second teacher.

When the fall session begins, those parents who have been on the waiting list, plus many new applicants, will be readily accommodated. Parents wishing to enroll their children should contact Pat Hecht, president.

The school, run on a cooperative basis, offers much variety of activity for the preschool child. Under the direction of Rosalie Greene there are periods of free supervised play, jungle gyms, sandbox, fully-equipped doll house, finger painting, clak work and many other activities.

Mrs. Green begins her third year with the school this fall. Member mothers participate regularly which allows for a better tuition. The Gardena Co-op is a member of the Los Angeles Council of Coops and has representation in that group.

Regular discussions of individual and group problems are led by the professional staff in an effort to help the parents toward a better understanding of their own children.

The school is non-sectarian and inter-racial.

First of the parliamentary law and federation extension workshop will be Thursday, Sept. 19 at Venice Woman's City Club, with the Mar Vista club as co-hostess. Presiding will be Mrs. Charles Ernest of Los Angeles, district parliamentarian, and Mrs. James N. Gorham of El Segundo, district federation extension secretary.

Co-op School Plans to Add New Teacher

Because of its desire to meet the needs of the growing community, the Gardena Co-op Nursery School, 149th and Crenshaw, has just approved plans for expansion which include the hiring of a second teacher.

When the fall session begins, those parents who have been on the waiting list, plus many new applicants, will be readily accommodated. Parents wishing to enroll their children should contact Pat Hecht, president.

The school, run on a cooperative basis, offers much variety of activity for the preschool child. Under the direction of Rosalie Greene there are periods of free supervised play, jungle gyms, sandbox, fully-equipped doll house, finger painting, clak work and many other activities.

Mrs. Green begins her third year with the school this fall. Member mothers participate regularly which allows for a better tuition. The Gardena Co-op is a member of the Los Angeles Council of Coops and has representation in that group.

Regular discussions of individual and group problems are led by the professional staff in an effort to help the parents toward a better understanding of their own children.

The school is non-sectarian and inter-racial.
