Sellstrom-Hansen Vows Have Been Exchanged

In a one o'clock ceremony at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Hawthorne on Saturday, Aug. 17, Miss Beulah Sellstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence T. Sellstrom, 808 Via Del Monte, Palos Verdes, exchanged wedding rings and vows with James A. Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hansen of Inglewood.

The bride walked to the altar with her father. She wore a traditional gown of Chantilly lace and tulle. The lace in the fitted bodice was studded with sequins and seed pearls and panthers of the lace fell over the bouffant tulle skirt. The lace edged illusion veil was secured by a flat headband of seed pearls and the bride carried white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Joyce Sellstrom was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a billowy gown of blue crystalline and carried a yellow rose cascade.

Jack Hansen stood as best man and Cullen Deck was usher. The Rev. T. Redahan officiated at the marriage.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents where Mrs. Cullen Deck registered the guests.

The newlyweds are touring the west coast on their honeymoon and their new home will be established in Hawthorne.

The bride is a graduate of Pepperdine College. Her mother is a teacher of parent-education and has spoken before many Torrance PTA groups.

AT CLEAR LAKE

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle O'Hara and children, Johnny, Judy, Jill and Colson, spent a 10-day vacation at Clear Lake, north of San Francisco.

K. Lockmans Host Gala Island Luau

An Hawaiian luau, with barbecued tuna steaks as the entrée, potatoes baked in the true island style and other oriental dishes with Japanese eggballs as dessert, was the island fare enjoyed by guests invited by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lockman, 1840 W. 218th St., last Saturday evening.

The new patio was lined with palm trees and oriental flowers for the affair. Dancing to Hawaiian music from the hi-fi was enjoyed after dinner.

Holly and David Lockman, children of the hosts, greeted the guests wearing Hawaiian costumes. They also entertained with several dances.

Attending the festive party were Messrs. and Mmes. John Agapito, Robert Stewart, James Crawford, Ed Alves, Hilo Kiyokami, Melvin Miller, and Capt. and Mrs. Del Gilkinson.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. Bud Jesse, Compton, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Arthur, Inglewood; Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Edwards, Los Angeles; and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lockman, Sr., Long Beach.

Mary Larkins Becomes Mrs. Domonoshe Aug. 24

As the wedding guests gathered in St. James Catholic Church last Saturday morning, Aug. 24, for the nuptial mass uniting Miss Mary Elizabeth Larkins and Dean Douglas Domonoshe, Mrs. Helen Grundman at the organ played a medley of nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Mary Burch, soloist. The church altar was banked with baskets of white gladioli and carnations and held standards of white candles.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Shirley Nolte, Miss Bonnie Domonoshe and Miss Betty Domonoshe. They wore pink nylon tulle over net and taffeta and each carried a bouquet of pink and white dianthus.

Next in line was the maid of honor, Miss Marion Ah Ping of Honolulu. She also wore a bouffant gown of pink net and tulle and carried pink and white dianthus.

Just ahead of the bride and her father, was Linda Beck, flower girl, wearing pink and white nylon, and dropping petals. Michael Ravone carried the rings.

Then came the bride in her gown of white Chantilly lace and net. The bodice of lace had a V neckline and long pointed sleeves. Appliqued lace panels were down the front and back of the tulle skirt which fell over net and taffeta. A seed pearl crown held the fingertip veil and the bridal bouquet was of butterfly orchids and stephanotis.

Duties of best man were performed by William Young and ushers were Robert Bussey, Duke Blakley and Horace Pullen.

The Rev. John McKenna was the officiant.

A champagne reception was held in the parish hall and the couple left for a honeymoon in Las Vegas and at the Grand Canyon.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Larkins, of Redondo, was graduated from the Holy Name College and is a teacher at the Sepulveda School in Torrance.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Domonoshe, 1419 25th St., Harbor City, is a Narbonne High graduate. He is now studying mechanical engineering at Loyola University.

Lechner-Sheffield Nuptials Read in Mid-Afternoon Rite

Miss Mary Diane Lechner was lovely in her wedding gown of Chantilly lace and tulle as she walked down the aisle of St. Margaret Mary's Catholic Church in Lomita last Saturday afternoon, Aug. 24 at 2, for her marriage to Philip Sheffield, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sheffield of Hot Springs, Ark. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Lechner, 2441 W. 254th St., Lomita.

Mr. Lechner escorted his daughter to the altar. Her gown had a Chantilly lace bodice and a full nylon tulle skirt ornamented with lace scallops. Her illusion veil cascaded from a pearl tiara and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Miss Susan Lechner, wearing rose taffeta with velvet trim and carrying pink asters and pink roses, was the maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Misses Barbara Miller, Bernadine Brown and Georgiana Lechner. They wore identical gowns of pink taffeta and carried bouquets of pink carnations and asters.

Flower girls were Phyllis and Margaret Lechner, twins. Their frocks were of beige taffeta with pink trim.

Ted Sandwell stood as best man and ushers were Bert Criml and Michael Lubner.

The Rev. Patrick Shelly officiated at the marriage and Miss Mary Butterfield played the wedding marches and accompanied Lucy Hughes, who sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day."

After a reception in the church hall, the couple left for a honeymoon at Lake Tahoe. Their new home will be in Hot Springs, Ark.

The bride was graduated in 1956 from Narbonne High School. Her husband attended school in Hot Springs and then served several years with the United States Marines.
