A POPULAR SPOT . . . the swimming pool at the El Prado home of Dr. and Mrs. John Beeman has been the setting for many happy get-togethers throughout the summer months. The college set spending the summer at home have joined Jack and Janel Beeman for hours of fun. Pictured here, enjoying an afternoon of swimming on a hot summer day, are from left, Violet Popovich, Grace Connett, Janel Beeman, and on the diving board, Cynthia Easley. Richard Connett is in the water.

IN THE TORRANCE PARK . . . Whiling away a summer afternoon in the local park are Mrs. Kenneth Boulter, 1318 Kornblum, and her two children, Peter and Belinda. The slide, swings and other recreational attractions have been enjoyed by many Torrance youngsters this summer.

BURNING CHARCOAL, SIZZLING STEAK . . . Typical of Southern California's popular outdoor living is this familiar shot taken at the E. D. Hawk home, 228 Via Linda Vista, when the James Van Dyck family were invited for a barbecue. The chef, in colorful cap and apron, is James Van Dyck, director of the Torrance Youth Band, serving his son, Ronnie. Holding her plate is Terry Van Dyck. Awaiting their turns are Debbie and the two youngest Van Dycks, Becky and Mona. On the lounge is the hostess, Mrs. Hawk, and standing is the mother of this happy clan, Mrs. James Van Dyck.

CDA Court Stages Gala 'Hobo' Party

A "Hobo" potluck was enjoyed by a large turnout of Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America in Nativity Parish Hall, Monday evening, Aug. 26.

A variety of delicious foods ranging from stew to dessert was served to members and guests who were dressed in "hobo" clothes.

Adelaide Armstrong, assisted by Dorothea O'Brien, was in charge.

Out-of-town guests included Agnes Flaherty, new District Deputy; Mrs. Daily and Mrs. Bisanti from Court St. Michael, Westwood.

Torrance guests were Carol Armstrong and Susan O'Brien, guests of their mothers and Pauline Carlin, guest of Ruth Janasik.

Mrs. Flaherty replaces Bernice Vucann who is now living in Turkey. The new district deputy stated that she is looking forward to working with the local court.

A Bon-Voyage

A group of friends went into International Airport Friday morning to bid bon voyage to Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sears and Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Whitney, who left for a vacation in Hawaii.

Having breakfast together and seeing them off were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lorange, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McNierny of San Pedro, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Boswell, Bob Haggard and the Whitney's daughter, Margo. Mr. and Mrs. Whitney will return in two weeks and the Sears will stay in the islands for a month.

LOVE THAT STUFF!

Devil's food cake and marshmallow icing are more fun at a picnic. So thinks Kevin Calliham, 14-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Calliham, 21917 Linda Dr. Kevin loved the photographer and poses freely as he "had a ball" at the picnic for Miss USA, Charlotte Sheffield, given by the Elders Quorum of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. The affair was held at the Clifford Peterson home.
