Burbank Man Gets Post At Newberry

Appointed assistant manager of the new South Bay Center store of the J. C. Newberry Co. this week was Wes R. Carlson, who started with the company in its Modesto store in 1951.

Before coming to the South Bay store, Carlson worked for the firm in San Francisco, Oakland, and Burbank. He now lives in Burbank, but plans to move into the area soon.

Carlson lives with his wife, Donna, and three children, Danny, 4½, Susan, 3½, and Lisa, 10 months.

The new store official was in the Army from 1953 to 1955.

Twirlers to Hold Meeting On Saturday

The Torrance Area Youthettes Baton Twirling Corps will hold its first fall meeting at 9:30 a.m., Saturday, at the Civic Auditorium.

This twirling group comprises both baton twirlers and flag twirlers and is instructed by Champion Rod White and his twirling partner, Natalie Houghton. They recently taught at the College of the Baton held annually at Los Angeles Pepperdine College. This is the seventh year White has directed the Torrance twirlers.

The Twirling Corps makes various appearances throughout the year with the Torrance Area Youth Band under the direction of James Van Dyck and also with other bands. Their next appearance will be at the Montebello band festival late in September.

Any girl or boy interested in beginning or advanced twirling and marching is invited to attend Saturday morning classes.

Lauterbach, Simpson Get GP Positions

Two General Petroleum officials from this area will get promotions, President Robert L. Minckler announced yesterday.

Richard E. Lauterbach, manager of GP's manufacturing department and former assistant manager of the Torrance refinery, was named vice president and director of manufacturing. He succeeds Thomas P. Simpson, who was named general manager of manufacturing of Socony Mobil Oil Co., Inc. in New York.

A resident of Rolling Hills, Lauterbach has been associated with GP since 1936 and is president of the Engineering Club of Los Angeles. A Los Angeles resident, Simpson has been with the firm for 33 years.

UCLA Offers Real Estate Course Here

Plans for a real estate course to be offered in the South Bay area this fall have been announced by University of California Extension.

The local course is presented by the University in cooperation with the California Division of Real Estate, the Educational Committee of the National Association of Real Estate Boards and the California Real Estate Assn., with Karl Venter as coordinator.

The course, "Valuation of Real Property," meets at Redondo Union High School, 631 Vincent Park, from 7 to 9:30 p.m., Sept. 16, for the first of 18 weekly meetings, with Robert L. Reeves, appraiser, as instructor.

Registration for the class is currently being accepted by mail at University of California Extension offices, Los Angeles 24, and through the first week of the class, providing places remain open.

General information concerning all University Extension fall classes is available in a class bulletin which may be obtained without charge at the Police Auction Set Torrance Police department will hold its annual auction Sept. 14, 1 p.m. in back of the station.

Bicycles and all unclaimed articles will be auctioned to the highest bidder.
