

MRS. RICHARD D. HARLICKER
... Radiant Bride

(Portrait by Seaman)

Elizabeth Hedgecock is Now Mrs. R. Harlicker

Miss Elizabeth Ellen Hedgecock was a lovely bride when she approached the altar of the First Christian Church last Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock to exchange her marriage vows with Richard Douglas Harlicker. Mr. and Mrs. James Hedgecock, 1714 Arlington Ave., are parents of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Groh, 722 Crenshaw Blvd., are parents of the bridegroom.

As the guests assembled Mrs. Eleanor Hanes at the organ accompanied Mrs. Nadine Nickol who sang "I Believe," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

As the wedding march began the bridesmaids entered. They were Miss Linda Lane and Miss Cathleen Mortenson. Both wore bouffant gowns of white lace over yellow taffeta and carried showers of yellow rosebuds.

Next came the maid of honor, Miss Lillian Hedgecock, sister of the bride. Her bouffant gown of lace was over pink taffeta and she carried pink rosebuds. Just ahead of the bride was Mitzi Bowling, as flower girl, in white lace over turquoise.

Then came the bride on the arm of her father. She wore a Canill original. The bodice and front and back panels were of hand-run Alencon lace. The panniers fell over net and taffeta. The side panels were of pleated tulle. Other details were a Queen Anne collar and long pointed sleeves. The fingertip veil fell from a seed pearl crown and her bouquet was of orchids and stephanotis atop a small white Bible.

William Harlicker was chosen by his brother to perform the duties of best man. Ushers were Stan Rothe and Robert Schep.

Leonard Babcock conducted the double ring ceremony. A reception was held at the YWCA and the couple left for a honeymoon at Lake Tahoe. They will establish a Torrance home. Guests were registered by Miss Kathie Curtis.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Harlicker are graduates of Torrance High School. The bride is now attending El Camino College studying cosmetology. She is a member of the Torrance Bethel, Job's Daughters, and the Delta Y-Teens.

The bridegroom is employed by the Torrance Unified School District.

Carpenter-Berry Wedding Solemnized at St. Peter's

Before the flower banked altar of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Miss Alice Carpenter became the bride of Richard Berry in a candlelight wedding ceremony conducted by the Rev. Hugh Percy, pastor of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church. The marriage was solemnized at 8:30 p.m. last Friday evening, Aug. 30.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Carpenter, 2427 Pacific Coast Hwy., Lomita, came to the altar on the arm of her uncle, Mr. Floyd Carpenter. She wore a traditional wedding gown of net and Chantilly lace. A seed pearl tiara held her illusion bridal veil and she carried a bouquet of white feathered carnations and stephanotis.

Mrs. Elmore Berry served as the matron of honor. She wore a pink brocaded satin gown and carried a cascade bouquet of pink asters.

Little Miss Nancy Berry in pink nylon and net served as the flower girl.

Verne Berry stood as his brother's best man and ushers were William Athias and Robert Carpenter. The church organist, Mrs. T. Shuck, played the wedding marches.

A reception was held in the parish hall following the wedding and Miss Vivian Serpa was in charge of the guest book.

The bride is a sophomore at Long Beach State College and her husband is a junior at the same college. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Berry, 1667 255th St., Harbor City.

VISIT ENSENADA

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Wiley, 1006 Sartori, Mr. and Mrs. David Pert, new Torrance residents who came here from Peterhead, Scotland, spent a recent weekend at the Bahai Club in Ensenada, Mexico. This was the Pert's first trip south of the border and they were especially thrilled with the Mexican dances and Mexican foods.

Susan Gately, Bride-Elect Is Honored

Miss Susan Gately, bride-elect, was complimented at a surprise party and shower given by Miss Carol Armstrong last Tuesday evening.

The party took place in the back yard at the Armstrong home where a lace covered table held a white net heart under which was a miniature bridal couple. The figurines stood on a red and white base encircled with red and white roses. Forming a background were white streamers.

Highlight of the evening was the "mock" wedding in which Nancy Viehaus stood as the bridegroom and Carol Armstrong, the bride. Mr. Leroy Armstrong was the preacher. Larry Armstrong carried the rings. A double ring ceremony was performed and "onion rings" served as the "circles of love." Marilyn Revell was the bridesmaid.

Several games were played and the honoree opened her gifts.

The hostess served peach cobbler, coffee, mints and nuts. Attending the party were Mmes. Francis Gately, mother of the bride-to-be, and Mmes. Leonard Young, Lyle O'Hara, Albert Elder, Nick Giacinto, Joe McDonald, Leroy Armstrong, Tom Babbitt, Lynn Cooper, Gerald Revell and Alford Puetz.

Others were Misses Marlene and Josie Puetz, Nancy Viehaus, Marilyn Revell and Carol Cooper.

COUPLES AT LUAU

Dr. and Mrs. George O. Peeke, Dr. and Mrs. Jack Lynn, and Dr. and Mrs. Paul Winn recently attended a luau at the Pacific Coast Club in Long Beach.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by Hilo Hattie.

PLANNING THE SHOW . . . Fall's loveliest, direct from the fashion centers of the world, are being studied by Mrs. Gerald Loew, center, and Mrs. Francis Gately, right, co-chairmen of the forthcoming Catholic Daughters' Fashion Show. They are being assisted by Mrs. Ella Levy Schwartz, left, in the selection of hats to be worn by CDA models. Levy Dept. Store will furnish the new creations. The annual style show will take place Sept. 23 at 8 p.m. at the parish hall, 1420 Cota Ave. (Herald Photo)
