Five Concerts

Labor Day marked the end of summer for the Beach Cities Symphony Orchestra, as rehearsals for the new season began on Tuesday, Sept. 3, in Mira Costa's Music Building, at 7:45 p.m.

Composer-Director Louis Palange has planned the year's five concerts for Oct. 11, Dec. 20, Feb. 21, April 11, and June 6; and the Beach Cities Symphony Assn. has already initiated the season with the Reception-Musical of Aug. 18, honoring its new president, Dr. George C. Anderson, Hermosa Beach's "Man of the Year."

Chairman of the Board, Mrs. Helen Hart Whitaker, announces the incorporation of the orchestra as one of the important accomplishments of the association's summer activities.

The woodwind and brass sections of the Beach Cities Symphony are well filled, and have waiting lists, but the string section is always open to new enlistments.

An up and coming young man of 14 will make his first appearance in Torrance when he plays the role of Bibi in ACCENT: Theatre's next production, "The Happy Time," which opens at the Torrance Playhouse, El Prado and Cabrillo on Sept. 13.

Although Richard French has been seen on the stage in the South Bay area a number of times before, this is the first time the local boy has appeared in his own home town.

Theater or Baseball?
A graduate of Seaside School, Richard will be attending the new South High School when it opens sometime in the fall. He hasn't yet decided whether his greatest love is the theater or baseball. This past summer he was a member of a Babe Ruth team and in the past played Little League baseball. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. French, 5305 Caral Dr.

Among his numerous appearances on the stage are "All Summer Long," which was presented last summer at Chapel Players' "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" given two summers ago for the Los Angeles Philharmonic in San Pedro, and "Aladdin," a recent presentation in Long Beach.

Richard did his initial training with the South Bay Players under the direction of Louise Wellington of Redondo Beach. He also studied dancing for a number of years and has made several appearances in Variety Shows on television.
