City to Salute 50th Birthday Of Air Power

(Illustration On Page 19)
 Plans for the City of Torrance to salute the golden anniversary of air power were formulated at a meeting of civic leaders and Air Force officials Monday, according to Chamber of Commerce Manager Dick Fitzgerald.
 Dates for the celebration will be Oct. 13 through 17th preceded by a "Miss Air Force" beauty contest on Sunday night, Oct. 8th, at the Stadium Theater. Contest will be open to girls 15 through 18 and will be judged by Air Force officials headed by the celebrated Colonel Dean Hess. Girls will be judged in teen-age "party" type dresses.
 To Show "Battle Hymn"
 A featured showing of "Battle Hymn" will be held on Wednesday night, Oct. 16th, at the Grand Theater. Battle Hymn is the story of the life of Colonel Hess, who founded an orphanage in Korea for children who lost parents in the conflict. Every cent derived from "Battle Hymn" was contributed by him to the Korean orphanage.
 All proceeds from the showing in Torrance will be devoted also to the same cause, Jack Dabbs, general manager of the Grand Theater Corporation, announced.

Banquet Scheduled
 Concluding the four-day "Salute" will be a banquet held on Thursday, Oct. 17th at Ricks Restaurant located at Western Ave. and Torrance Blvd. Colonel Hess will be the featured speaker of the banquet sponsored by the Torrance Chamber of Commerce. Reservations can be secured by calling the Chamber of Commerce office. All proceeds going to the Korean Orphanage fund.
JAYWALKER TOLL
 Almost one-half of all pedestrians killed in traffic are struck down in areas away from the regular crosswalks.
VETERANS GROUP
 American war veterans numbered about 40 per cent of the adult male population of the U. S. as of the 1950 count.
