Mr. and Mrs. Joe K. Crow Now Home From Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Keith Crow are now at home to their friends at 214 1/2 Ave. C, Redondo Beach, following their wedding Aug. 30.

The bride is the former Shirley Diane Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cooper, 2842 Winlock Rd.; parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Crow, of Redondo Beach.

The Rev. C. G. Emanuel read the rites at the First Baptist Church in an evening ceremony. John Hurter accompanied by Mrs. J. Byrnes sang "I Love You Truly," and the Lord's Prayer.

The bride walked down the aisle with her father. She was gowned in a ballerina length dress of lace and net panels over white satin, with a scalloped neckline. Her veil fell to her shoulders, and for a bouquet, she carried a white orchid and stephanotis.

Miss Vicki Cooper, the sister of the bride, was maid of honor in a yellow nylon and satin gown with matching headpiece. She carried yellow carnations.

Serving his brother as best man was B. L. Crow and Miss Beth Schneider registered guests. A reception followed at the church.

The bride was graduated this year from Torrance High School. Her husband attended Venice High School and was graduated in February from Long Beach State College.

The two honeymooned at Carmel and Monterey.

Fish Society Plans Meeting In Torrance

September meeting of the Harbor Aquarium Society will be held on the evening of Thursday, Sept. 26, at 7:30 p.m. in the Recreation Hall at McMasters Park, 174th and Yukon, in Torrance. The meeting will be called to order by President Irene Harris.

The guest speaker will be Don Gilman of the Kelco Co., who will show a color film "Harvest of the Sea," a picture of the kelp industry.

This film has been made in cooperation with scientists who have devoted many years to the study of marine life and the film contains many shots of fish and underwater growth. There will be a brief question period following the showing of the film.

At this meeting, reports will be given on the sale of tickets for the annual drawing for a 15 gallon aquarium, complete with wrought iron stand, all accessories and fish, that will be awarded the holder of the winning ticket at the October meeting. The aquarium and stand will be on display at this meeting.

Plans will also be discussed for attendance at the Annual Aquarists Convention to be held in Los Angeles in November.

The showfish for the month will be Scavengers. The door prize will be a five gallon tank and hood. Refreshments will be served after the meeting.

dore McCampbell, M. G. Moore, Roy Murphy, James Russell, Joseph Simpson, Charles Smith, William Spence, Hubert Sprott, Ernest Stever, Jewel Timmons, Loyal Tinder and Ward Watkins; Misses Adda Anderson, Bonnie Miller, Belle Mitchell, Mildred Murphy and Mary Francis O'Brien.

Counseling Service to Aid Women

Compton Counseling Service, 1001 E. Rosecrans Ave., in Compton, is offering two classes in personal development beginning next week. It was announced this week by Ben W. Davis, Public Relations Chairman of the organization.

Mrs. Edith Stauffer, director of the Counseling Service, will teach both groups.

The course in "Depth Psychology" will begin Thursday, Sept. 26, and will meet each week on this evening from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. This course is a study of the conscious and unconscious and how they function. The course is intended to assist the individual in self-understanding, and in learning how to use his own potentials for more creative living.

"Journey Into Self" is an advanced course for those who have had the "Depth Psychology" course, and are having personal counseling. The class is designed to assist the individual in speeding his progress in understanding and relatedness. This course begins Tuesday, Sept. 24, at 7:30 p.m.
