Cub Pack 198-C

Cub Scout Pack 198C of Gardena takes pleasure in announcing that Mr. Al Apodaca and his orchestra will play at the Pack's dance on Sept. 21 at the VFW Hall in Gardena, 162 and Western Ave. Apodaca is well known in Gardena and Torrance where he teaches for the Torrance Unified School District.

The dance is open to the public, and everyone over 21 is welcome to attend. Donation is $1 for tickets which will be sold at the door.

Boy Scout Troop 211

Members of Boy Scout Troop 211 returned home Sunday from a week end outing at Green River Camp in Santa Ana Canyon.

Scout Leader Don Cooke and Gordon Jones instructed the boys in first aid on the trip. The boys were guests at an evening campfire with Troop 17 of Long Beach. In return, Troop 17 was invited to the Sunday morning church service of Troop 211, conducted by Senior Patrol Leader Robert Ramsey.

Other Scouts taking part in swimming and other activities included Gordon Jones, Steven Brown, Ronnie Hixon, David Foote, Mike Pooler, Mike Powers, Dale Bill, and David Ramsey. The troop is sponsored by the Meadow Park PTA.

Scout Troop 219

Torrance Kiwanis Club's sponsored Boy Scouts of Troop 219 which meets every Wednesday night in the Scout Hall at 7 p.m. has announced the program for the coming year. Scoutmaster Dennis Coil presented his program plans to his committee this week.

The first activity came on Wednesday night when the troop went on a swimming party to Long Beach Pike. This activity was well chaperoned and the boys were instructed in the different phases of swimming in order to help them advance in their scouting work and also to help the beginners.

Throughout the year, there will be many conditioning hikes and one long hike, probably the Silver Moccasin Trail. There will also be four short term camping trips and one long term Camp Out, possibly at the Firestone Camp.

Coil is a young man new to Torrance, but not new to Scouting. He is extending an invitation to all boys between the ages of 11-14 to come out with some of their friends and visit the troop.
