Cub Scout Pack 706-C
Cub Scout Pack 706-C, under the sponsorship of the Carl Steele School PTA, will hold its first annual picnic on Sept. 29 at Alondra Park. Organized games with prizes for all age groups will be featured at this gala event.

Paul Eaton, cubmaster, recently announced that the coveted one-year pins will be awarded to those Cubs eligible for the honor at a special ceremony in the near future.

Pack 706-C, one of the few packs in this area to continue regular meetings throughout the summer months, now swings into full-scale activities with a heavy schedule of winter events enjoyable season.

Monthly meetings are held in the Carl Steele School cafeteria and weekly meetings for each den are under the direction of the individual den mothers. Plans are now being made for active participation in the school's October carnival, and a potluck supper is also scheduled as a fund-raising event.

Brownie Troop 404
A cook-out at Point Fermin was held last week by Brownie Troop 404, sponsored by Madrona PTA.

After a meal of spaghetti topped by watermelon, the Brownies hiked along the beach searching for shells.

Taking part in the cook-out were Annie Almeida, Lynn Beahan, Leslie Bergona, Barbara Bryant, Lynette Campazzi, Judy Carstenson, Debbie Dahlen, Karen Harding, Vicky Hayes, Jackie Hayes, Jackie Huff, Robin Major, Susanne Meyers, Barbara Olson, Susan Roberts, and Laurie Young.

The mothers assisting Leader Kathryn Beahan were Mildred Harding, Alice Almeida, and Doris Roberts.

Brownie Fly-Ups
Two Girl Scout troops combined forces to welcome new Scouts into their ranks at Torrance Park Tuesday evening as Brownies crossed the traditional bridge, received their wings, and became Girl Scouts.

Joining with members of their families for a potluck dinner before the formal ceremony were Girls of Scout Troops 474 and 566.

Girls from Troop 474 crossing the bridge included Judith Brown, Cathy Cleady, Carolyn Florence, Pat Parvis, Linda Scott, Cheryl Williams and Nancy Foster. Dina Scott was invested as a Scout.

Girls receiving their wings and joining Girl Scout Troop 566 included Dolores Jones, Carolyn Jensen, Janis Albright, Dora Louise Wahl, Roberta Myers, Sherleen Floyd, Carol Ann Goodrich, Grace McCabe, Jerje Gruber, Kay Roberts, Shirley Meyers, Karen Johnson, Deborah Van Dyck, Francine Frohnhoefer, Sherry Northington, Jacqueline Megow, and Ruth McNulty.

Julia Stamps, neighborhood chairman, gave an orientation talk to parents.

PFC Jack Hanna, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Hanna, 1411 W. 257th St., Harbor City, has been hospitalized in Germany with a back injury, he reported to his parents this week.

A member of Battery C., 7th Field Artillery, Hanna wrote that he injured his back when he jumped from a truck during a field exercise near Bamberg, Germany. He was hospitalized in Neurnburg where it was determined that he had fractured a vertebrae. He was expecting to be hospitalized for about two weeks. He spent his 21st birthday in the hospital, he wrote.

Before entering the service last year, Hanna was employed in the composing room of the HERALD.

Marine Cpl. Richard L. Bricker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bricker, of 21418 Evalyn Ave., and Marine Sgt. Howard W. Adams, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Adams Sr., of 22933 Galva, took part in an artillery field exercise Sept. 17-30 on the Mojave Desert at Twenty-nine Palms.

The blistering 13-day grind involved 2000 of the 1st Marine Division's 11th Regiment Marines.

The exercise reached its climax when the regiment unleashed its 105-mm and 155-mm howitzers, plus 4.2 mortars, in live-fire support of imaginary units attacking the "enemy."

Army PPC Hal C. Laudeman, whose wife, Janet, lives at 753 College Ave., Kenfield, Calif., recently participated in a two-week field training exercise conducted by the 10th Division's 10th Infantry in southern Germany.

Laudeman, a rifleman in Company D of the Infantry, entered the Army in May 1956 and received basic training at Fort Ord, Calif. He arrived in Europe in November 1956.

A member of Sigma Nu fraternity, Laudeman was graduated from the University of California at Los Angeles in 1955. He also attended the University of Arizona. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hall B. Laudeman, live at 1304 Greenwood Ave., Torrance.

Pvt. Gerald D. Garver, son of Mrs. Esther Cloward, 1407 Greenwood Ave., has been promoted to PFC while serving in Kitzhenan, Germany. He is a 1956 graduate of Torrance High School and is attached to the demolition division, B Co, 9th Engr. Bn.

Joseph M. Rubeo, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Rubeo of 2508 Sierra St., completed recruit training Sept. 26 at the Marine Corps Recruit Dept., San Diego.

Upon completion of training new Marines are assigned to a unit for further infantry training, or to one of the many Marine Corps schools.
