Fish Breeding Meet Subject

The October meeting of the Harbor Aquarium Society will be held today, at 7:30 p.m., in the recreation hall at McMasters Park, 174th and Yukon in Torrance. President Irene Harris will open the meeting.

The guest speaker will be Al Muse of Hawthorne, a prominent fish hobbyist who has chosen as his topic, "Breeding Problems of Platies and Guppies." A movie of interest will also be shown.

Plans will be discussed for the participation of members in the display of the annual pet fair to be held in the Municipal Auditorium in Long Beach, starting on Nov. 10. The showfish for the monthly meeting display will be the Tetras, one of the largest families of tropical fish and one that contains some of the most colorful of the smaller tropicals such as the neon, the glowlight, the head and tail light fish, the pencil fish and many others. The ferocious Piranha of the Amazon is also a member of the Tetra family.

The day's prize will be a five gallon tank and hood. Refreshments will be served after the meeting. All fish fanciers are invited to attend.

First Found
Santa Isabel was the first of the Solomon islands to be discovered.

NURSERY ADDS NEW TEACHER

Gardena Co-op Nursery School, sponsored by the Alondra Park Methodist Church, has announced the addition of Mrs. Mryya Green to its professional staff. A graduate of the School for Nursery, Mrs. Green comes to the community from another cooperative nursery in Brentwood.

Now that the school has a senior teacher in addition to Rosalie Greene, teacher-director, it will be able to accept more children to membership at this time. Those interested in applying are urged to contact Pat Hecht, chairman, or Fay Boardman, membership chairman.

The Gardena Co-op is a non-sectarian, inter-racial school.

YOU ARE INVITED . . . Margaret Dean, recording secretary of the Torrance Business and Professional Women's Club and an employee of the Torrance Recreation Dept., is extending a ticket to Violet Whittington, recording secretary of the Torrance Pilot's Club. Miss Whittington is also an employee of the Recreation Dept. The invitation is to the B&PW club's fashion show and dinner Nov. 20 for all club women of Torrance.

B & PW Invites All Club Women

To the club women of Torrance, the Business and Professional Women's club is issuing an invitation to a fashion show and dinner at the Club Alondra on Nov. 20. The purpose of this affair, as pointed out by Torrance career women, is to get acquainted.

Hilda Monroe, B&PW member, employee of American Standard, is chairman of this event. Each club member is serving on a committee in an effort to make this an outstanding affair of the club year.

As the local Business and Professional Women initiate what they hope will be an annual affair, every woman's organization of the area will be contacted.

Of prime interest to all women are fall's newest fashions. Moore's Dress Shop of Torrance will provide a line of elegant new fashions and Mrs. Alynne Moore will do the commenting. Tickets are now being sold by all B & PW club members.

Camp Fire Beautifies Grounds

Okiciyapi Winuke Camp Fire Girls planted three hibiscus plants at Edison School, Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 16. The new school which opened last spring is located on 192nd St. The girls expressed a desire to beautify the grounds to T. Foster, principal, who suggested the three double pink hibiscus plants.

The girls are now working on Halloween tray favors, tray covers and disposal bags for the Harbor General Hospital.

Members of the group are Dawna Riggs, Janet White, Sally Marcus, Jennifer Cable, Angolina Monjarrez, Carol Ellis, Lyndao Barber, Vickie Thompson, Gwen Glenn, Anne Yokoyama, Linda Kern, Sandra Scrivens and Peggy Taylor.

NORTHERN TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Boulter, 1721 Hickory Ave., and their two children, Peter and Belinda, returned this week from a vacation spent in Northern California.

IN CHICAGO

Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Eastham are in Chicago where Dr. Eastham is attending a medical convention. Mrs. Eastham's mother is staying with the children during their absence.

TURNING THE SHOVEL . . . Local Camp Fire Girls went to work last week to beautify the grounds at Edison School. They planted three pink hibiscus plants. Turning the shovel is Dawna Riggs and ready to set the plant in the ground is Sandra Scrivens.
