

Torrance Herald
Social World
 EDNA CLOYD, Editor

NOVEMBER 7, 1957

FA 8-5164

Eleven

MISS ANN LONG
 ... Makes Wedding Plans

Ann Long - Richard Krifruff
 Set Dec. 13 Wedding Date

Wedding bells will ring on Dec. 13 for Miss Ann Long and Richard Krifruff. The announcement of the engagement and wedding plans are being made this morning by Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Long, 26019 Crest Rd., Torrance, parents of the bride-elect. The benedict is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Sischo of San Pedro. The bride-to-be was graduated from Torrance High School in 1956. She has since been employed by Vickers, Inc. The future bridegroom was graduated from San Pedro High in 1951. He served two years with the United States Navy and is now a tool and die maker for a local firm.

"Evergreen Ball" Scheduled Nov. 30

One of the outstanding social events of the holiday season, "The Evergreen Ball" staged annually by Las Madrecitas, will be held this year on Nov. 30 at the Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach. The benefit dinner-dance will take place in the Ballerina and Supper rooms of the hotel. This affair, which is always attended by socialites from the entire south bay, is for the benefit of Las Madrecitas philanthropy, the Crippled Children's Guild, Orthopedic hospital. Formal bids were distributed at the last meeting, Thursday, Oct. 3, in the art gallery at Palos Verdes Library. Assisting decoration chairman, Mrs. Richard Egan, will be Mmes. Walter Hetz, Bruce Swauger, James Grant, Horace Le Cuyer, Kenneth W. Betts, Charles Neugebauer, W. B. Thompson, Aubrey Gray, G. R. Reinhardt, Richard Wilson, Malcolm Richland, Paul Waller. In charge of table seating arrangements are Mrs. Frank Bescoy, chairman, and Mmes. Harry Coulombe, Charles T. Van Vliet. Hostess chairman, Mrs. Thomas Cahraman, Jr., will be assisted by the Mmes. D. G. Gleason, N. B. Watson, N. E. Clifford, Arnold W. Martin, R. E. Wilcoxon. Financial committee includes Mrs. Robert Eckhouse.

chairman, and Mrs. Howard Langpap. Roger Bacon's dance orchestra will provide music. Three large gold glittering mesh trees will adorn the walls of the ballroom with green cellophane leaves and gold balls. The tables will have smaller gold mesh trees on white bases with gold gilded leaves sprinkled with gold dust. The pillars of the ballroom will have cascades of ragnolia leaves and gold cones, carrying out the ball's theme of green and gold.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Van Deventer, 2203 Carson St. returned Wednesday night from an extensive vacation. They visited with friends and relatives in Phoenix, Ariz., Omaha, Nev., Chicago, Burlington, Wis., Urbana, Ill. and drove south to Odessa, Tex. where they had a visit with Mrs. Van Deventer's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Hulsey of Columbia S. A. Mr. Hulsey, who is superintendent for the Shell Oil Co. in Columbia is in Odessa attending a special training school. Burlington, Wis. and Chicago are former homes of Mrs. Van Deventer and in Urbana, Ill. they visited a nephew who is attending the university there.

VAN DEVENTERS ARE HOME FROM TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Van Deventer, 2203 Carson St. returned Wednesday night from an extensive vacation. They visited with friends and relatives in Phoenix, Ariz., Omaha, Nev., Chicago, Burlington, Wis., Urbana, Ill. and drove south to Odessa, Tex. where they had a visit with Mrs. Van Deventer's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Hulsey of Columbia S. A. Mr. Hulsey, who is superintendent for the Shell Oil Co. in Columbia is in Odessa attending a special training school. Burlington, Wis. and Chicago are former homes of Mrs. Van Deventer and in Urbana, Ill. they visited a nephew who is attending the university there.

Las Vecinas Club Women Donate Funds

Las Vecinas Club members will donate $250 to the Torrance Area Youth Band. Band members currently are staging a drive to raise $25,000 in order to journey to Chicago this December for a music clinic.

Announcement of the Las Vecinas donation was made by Mrs. Robert Nielsen, philanthropy chairman at the club's regular monthly meeting Thursday at the Redondo Beach Elks Club.

Mrs. Maurice Wilson reported on the recent Las Vecinas breakfast at which 1530 persons were served.

The chorus, under the direction of Mrs. E. R. Harvey, sang several selections.

Speaker for the meeting was Joseph Cooper, advisory board member of the Wine Growers of America. He showed a film and then spoke on "Cooking with Wine."

Boyd-Lombard Names Linked in Marriage

In a late afternoon ceremony on Saturday, Nov. 2, in the First Christian Church in Wilmington, Miss Anjalyn Clark Boyd, daughter of Mrs. L. C. Flanagan of Wilmington, and Turner Boyd of Moracido, Venezuela, exchanged her marriage promises with Roger Dale Lombard of Long Beach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ralston, Orville Eimer and Miss Shirley Wight.

The couple left for Las Vegas on a honeymoon. They will go on to St. Paul to visit the bridegroom's parents before returning to make their home at 2351 Pine Ave., Long Beach.

The bride attended Narbonne High School and was graduated from Loveland (Tex.) High School before going to Venezuela, South America, where she was employed as a secretary for seven months.

The bridegroom was reared and educated in St. Paul. He is now employed by an automotive firm in Long Beach.

Bridge Party

Mrs. Walter Levy of 3916 Via Nivel in Palos Verdes opened her home Friday for a luncheon-bridge.

Those attending included Mmes. W. E. Grubbs, B. L. Easley, J. P. Montague, Gerald Eastham, Robert Triplett, Phillips Halloran, K. D. Figgins, Donald Hitchcock, Mrs. Phyllis Klink was a luncheon guest.

Club Brunch

Mrs. R. E. Moffitt entertained her bridge club and two substitutes at a brunch and party Monday at her home, 2724 Arlington Ave.

Mrs. Moffitt's guests were Mmes. V. D. Benard, J. A. Eisenbrandt, William Dekin, Lillian Dunhouse and E. L. Snodgrass. Substitutes were Mrs. Alma Smith and Mrs. W. A. Clinkscales.

A Luncheon

Mrs. E. E. Carlstrom, 18819 Fonthill, was hostess at her home for a surprise birthday luncheon in honor of Mrs. Kenneth McVey, Tuesday, Oct. 29.

A delicious luncheon was served. A beautifully decorated cake with lighted candles served as a centerpiece.

An array of lovely gifts was presented to the honoree. Guests included: Mmes. T. R. Jackson, Kenneth Judd, Wilson Willey, R. W. Baile, John Arnesmeyer, W. E. Boell.

THEATRE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Foley joined Los Angeles friends for dinner last Saturday evening before attending "Annie Get Your Gun" in a group.

Just ahead of the bride was little Donna Jean Long as flower girl. She wore a pink taffeta frock trimmed with pink velvet and carried a basket filled with pink and white rose petals.

Vern Peck stood as best man and ushers were Weldon J. Kelley and the bride's two brothers, Patrick, and James Flanagan.

The Rev. Bert Ruffett officiated at the marriage and was assisted by the Rev. Denver Clark, missionary from Venezuela, whom the bride had met during her residency there.

Mrs. Inez Stout, at the organ, played the wedding marches and accompanied Bill Stevens who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held in the Fireside room at the church. Registering guests were Mrs. Joyce Sonnicksen and in charge of the gift table were Joan Gustafson and Donna Hill. Assisting in serving were Mmes. Weldon Kel-

MRS. ROGER DALE LOMBARD
 ... Lovely Bride

(Crotty Photo)

PLAN MENU ... Torrance JayCettes will host the District meeting here Dec. 2. Committee chairmen Mrs. Ed Karlow, left, Mrs. John Mangan and Mrs. Jack Smith are shown here selecting the menu for the affair.

Story on Page 12

Norris Home Chosen for Baby Shower

Mrs. Rod Norris, 1323 Fern Ave., hosted a "coffee"-baby shower last week for Mrs. Kenneth Belles.

The color scheme of green and yellow was carried out in decorations and napkins with the coffee table decorated with yellow mums and a stork.

Individual tables had centerpieces of yellow mums in silver containers.

Guests attending were Mmes. William Lemke, John Atkinson, Ben Whitt, Matt Kelly, James Daniels, Clyde Beall, Harry Maxwell, Shirley Coleman, Newell Mortensen, Milo Anderson, Ivan Keys, Evelyn Lanz, Edward Gardiner, Don Butler, Clarence Bay, Oscar Alvord, Eric Betts, Bob Linke, James Ruffin.

Also present were Misses Alice Ugaldé, Jane Walsh, Jeanne Buerigin, Helen Main, Cubie Bohannan, Dorothy Warning, Frances Wond and Cecilia Daniels.

LOCAL GIRL AT PASADENA COLLEGE

Miss Elaine Christine Scroggins, of Torrance, is one of 336 new students enrolled this semester at Pasadena College at Pasadena.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Scroggins, 20430 Raymond Ave.

Elaine is majoring in speech and minoring in music.

Pasadena College is a fully accredited four-year liberal arts college affiliated with the Church of the Nazarene. Its more than 800 students are studying for bachelor's degrees in 14 major fields and master's degrees in the department of religion.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Nita Shidler was hostess at a festive Halloween party at the home of her parents, Judge and Mrs. John Shidler, 317 Camino del las Colinas, last Wednesday afternoon. Nita's guests included 15 classmates from the kindergarten at Parkway School.

Three Generations In Family Active in DAR

Two Torrance youngsters are carrying on the traditions established many years ago by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Shannon Lea and Molly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Hennessy, 19823 Talisman St., are third generation members of the organization.

The two are members of the Elizabeth Donner Houghton chapter, Children of the American Revolution. Their grandmother, Mrs. William P. Colvin, Sr., belongs to the Susan B. Anthony chapter, DAR, in Long Beach.

The local girls and their 13 cousins are seventh in line from Joseph Westline and William Crooks, both Revolutionary heroes.

Shannon took the speaker's podium at the recent Susan B. Anthony chapter meeting at the Disneyland Hotel, speaking for the CAR in an appeal for membership.

She urged that all who had children to enroll them in the CAR. The young speaker set forth the aims and purposes of the society—"preservation of the American ideals and heritage and to promote an interest in the study of American history."

She also explained requirements for membership. Any boy or girl under 21, who is a direct descendant of one who fought or gave aid to the American colonies, is eligible for membership.

Mrs. Hennessy, mother of the two youngsters, is the chairman of the CAR committee of the Susan B. Anthony chapter and those wishing to join should obtain application blanks from her.

Mrs. Colvin, accounting for the third generation, is the Chapter Grandmother.

Sylvia Lancaster is Now Mrs. C. Stefan

Miss Sylvia Lancaster, who has made her home here for more than a year with her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lancaster, 4532 Cadison, became the bride of Charles Stefan, son of Mrs. John Brescovich of El Monte, at an 8 o'clock wedding on Oct. 25 at the Redondo Beach Methodist Church.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lancaster of McMoresville, Tenn., chose a gown of white satin with a lace yoke, long sleeves and full skirt for her wedding. Her tulle veil fell from a crown of crushed tulle and pearls. White orchids and stephanotis formed the bridal bouquet. Mr. Lancaster gave his sister in marriage.

Miss Francis Lancaster served as the maid of honor wearing blue nylon and carrying pink roses.

Kathy Lancaster in a pink nylon eyelet dress was the flower girl and the rings were carried by Kirk Norbut.

Ray Stefan was best man and ushers were Harold Lipard and Marlon Kinny. The Rev. Hughes conducted the marriage.

A reception was held at the church and the couple are now at home at 814 Sartori Ave.

The bride was educated in Huntingdon, Tenn., and the bridegroom received his education in Union City, N. J.

MRS. CHARLES STEFAN
 ... At Home Here

(Tak Inche)

AMERICAN HERITAGE ... Three generations in a local family, whose early American background dates back to the days of the American Revolution, preserve their heritage in the work of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Mrs. W. P. Colvin (center, front) is a member of the Susan B. Anthony DAR chapter. With her are her daughter, Mrs. W. F. Hennessy (center, back), also a DAR, and her two granddaughters, Molly (left) and Shannon, who are members of the Children of the American Revolution. Mrs. Colvin is chapter grandmother of the CAR.

(Herald Photo)